WHERE WE STORE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

Your personal data may be stored and processed in any country where we have facilities or in which we engage service providers, and by using the Services you consent to the transfer of information to countries outside of your country of residence which may have data protection rules that are different from those of your country. In certain circumstances, courts, law enforcement agencies, regulatory agencies or security authorities in those other countries may be entitled to access your personal data.

If you are located in the EEA: Some of the non-EEA countries are recognised by the European Commission as providing an adequate level of data protection according to EEA standards (the full list of these countries is available here: https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/international-dimension-data-protection/adequacy-decisions\_en)

For transfers from the EEA to countries not considered adequate by the European Commission, we have put in place adequate measures, such as standard contractual clauses adopted by the European Commission and binding corporate rules to protect your personal data. You may obtain a copy of these measures by contacting Legal@mcsaatchi.com.

HOW WE KEEP YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We take steps to ensure that the personal data that you provide is retained for only as long as it is necessary for the purpose for which it was collected. After this period, it will be deleted or in some cases anonymised. We may also keep a record of correspondence with you (for example if you have made a complaint) for as long as is necessary to protect us from a legal claim.

Where we have collected the personal data based on your consent and we have no other lawful basis to continue with that processing, if you subsequently withdraw your consent by using the contact details specified under the "Contact Us" section or otherwise, then we will delete your personal data. However, please note that where you unsubscribe from our marketing communications, we will keep a record of your email address to ensure we do not send you marketing emails in future.

YOUR RIGHTS

You have certain rights in relation to your personal data, which vary by jurisdiction. These include the right to object to the processing of your information for certain purposes, the right to withdraw your consent at any time, the right to access your personal data, and the ability to erase, restrict the processing of or receive a machine-readable copy of your personal data. You also have the right not to be subject to a solely automated decision in respect of your personal data except subject to certain conditions. We will handle any request to exercise your rights in accordance with applicable law and any relevant legal exemptions.

If you would like to review, correct, update, restrict or delete personal data that you have previously provided to us, or if you would like to receive an electronic copy of your personal data for purposes of transmitting it to another company (to the extent this right to data portability is provided to you by applicable law), you may contact us by emailing us at: Legal@mcsaatchi.com.

In your request, please make clear what personal data you would like to have changed, whether you would like to object to the processing of your personal data, withdraw your consent or otherwise let us know what rights you would like to exercise in relation to your personal data. For your protection, we may only implement requests with respect to the personal data associated with the particular email address that you use to send us your request, and we may need to verify your identity before implementing your request. We will try to comply with your request as soon as reasonably practicable.

Please note that we may need to retain certain information for record keeping purposes. There may also be residual information that will remain within our databases and other records, which will not be removed.

You also have the right to complain to a data protection supervisory authority if you think we have processed your personal data in a manner which is unlawful or breaches your rights. If you have such concerns, we request that you initially contact us (using the contact details below) so that we can investigate, and hopefully resolve, your concerns. Contact details for the relevant data protection supervisory authorities are also set out below.
