

Code of Conduct

Basketball is a leisure sport that promotes both fun and physical wellbeing. This document sets the standards expected within our Association, and reflects our values of integrity, loyalty, trust, respect and pride. This applies to all individuals associated with the Association, including but not limited to: Board members, Staff members, Volunteers, Coaches, Players, Officials, Spectators.

By complying with this code of conduct, we can ensure that all Rockingham Basketball & Recreation Association (RBRA) participants are treated with a high standard of respect, sportsmanship and honour in the hopes of providing an enjoyable experience for everyone.

As a condition of entry to participate within the Rockingham Basketball & Recreation Association (RBRA), I agree to:

- 🔥 Conduct myself in accordance with RBRA's values
- 🔥 Promote sportsmanship by ensuring that everyone adheres to the rules and the spirit of the game.
- 🔥 Adhere to the Zero Tolerance Policy
- 🔥 Treat each person as an individual, everyone deserves equal attention and opportunity.
- 🔥 Acknowledge good performances and effort from all individuals, whether it be my team, the opposition or even the officials
- 🔥 Respect the decisions of referees and officials at all times
- 🔥 Respect all equipment and facilities used by caring for it as if it were my own
- 🔥 Take pride in being a member of the RBRA

Breaches of the Association's Policies and Codes of Conduct by anyone associated with RBRA will result in suspension. Repeated breaches of the Associations Policies and Codes of Conduct will result in expulsion from the competitions, the Association conducts and from the Association if the person breaching the association is a player, coach, or ordinary member.
