Performance is historical and does not guarantee future results. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate with changing market conditions so that when redeemed, shares may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance may be lower or higher than the data quoted. Investors cannot directly invest in an index, and unmanaged index returns do not reflect any fees, expenses, or sales charges. The volatility of an index may be materially different than that of the Fund, and investors should not expect the Fund to achieve the same results as a listed index. This material must be read along with the Fund's prospectus, which may be obtained at eventidefunds.com/prospectus. 1. Effective 11/01/2024, the Fund's name changed from the Eventide Dividend Opportunities Fund. Also effective 11/01/2024, the investment objectives of the Fund became dividend growth and long-term capital appreciation. The Fund's secondary objective became dividend income and, under normal circumstances, at least 80% of the Fund's net assets (plus the amount of borrowings for investment purposes) is invested in the securities of companies that Eventide Asset Management, LLC believes have the ability to increase dividends over the long term. These clarifications are designed to help investors understand that the Fund places a greater emphasis on cash flow generation and dividend growth as opposed to absolute dividend yield or dividend income alone.

2. Does not include cash/money market funds/alternatives. Based on percentage of net assets. Holdings can change at any time, are subject to risks discussed in the Funds prospectus, and should not be considered investment advice.

3. This chart is for illustrative purposes and assumes that a $10,000 investment was made on the Fund's inception date of 09/29/2017 and that all dividends and capital gains were reinvested. Hypothetical performance often shows markedly better results than actual management and should not be the basis for an investment decision. A variety of factors could impact investment decision making or otherwise cause differences between the hypothetical performance and actual investor returns.

4. Compares the Eventide Dividend Growth Fund Class I's performance to index performance over the periods shown. Performance will differ for other fund classes, based upon fees and commissions.

5. The returns shown do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on fund distributions or on the redemption of fund shares. Because of ongoing market volatility, fund performance may be subject to substantial short-term changes.

6. The Bloomberg US Mid Cap Index is a float market-cap-weighted benchmark of the lower 800 in capitalization of the Bloomberg US 1000 Index, which is a float market-cap-weighted benchmark of the 1000 most highly capitalized US companies. Source: Bloomberg Index Services Limited. Bloomberg® is a trademark and service mark of Bloomberg Finance L.P. and its affiliates (collectively "Bloomberg").

7. Performance figures for periods greater than 1 year are annualized. Annualized since inception figures use an inception date of 09/29/2017.

8. Represents the sum of all distributions from the period indicated. Distributions consist of dividend and interest income, capital gains, and/or return of capital. Shareholders should not assume that Fund distributions represent net profit. Income may be distributed regardless of whether such income will be treated as return of capital.

9. 12-Month Yield is the sum of a fund's total trailing 12-month interest and dividend payments divided by the last month's ending share price (NAV) plus any capital gains distributed over the same period.

10. SEC Yield is based on a 30-day (or one-month) period ending 09/30/2025 and is calculated by dividing the net investment income per share earned during the period by the maximum offering price per share on the last day of the period. The SEC yield is a standardized measure of a mutual fund's yield, showing the annualized income earned by the fund over the past 30 days after expenses. The subsidized SEC yield displayed reflects uses net expenses in the calculation while the unsubsidized SEC yield uses gross expenses. For more information see SEC Form N-1A.

- Allocation percentages are subject to change at any time, and should not be considered investment advice. Due to rounding, numbers may not add up to 100.
- Impact bonds fund business models that strive to have significant social or environmental effects.

- Includes cash, cash equivalents, money market funds and options.
- The range shows the highest and lowest turnover ratio reported in the Annual Report during the last three fiscal years, ending 06/30/2025. Portfolio turnover is the percentage of the portfolio that was bought or sold (lesser) during a fiscal year. A higher portfolio turnover may indicate higher transaction costs for the Fund, and may result in higher taxes for investors.
- The performance and risk factor comparisons are against the Bloomberg US Mid Cap Index. Alpha is a measure of performance on a risk-adjusted basis. It takes the volatility (price risk) of a fund and compares its risk-adjusted performance to the Index. Any excess return of a fund relative to the return of the Index is a fund's alpha. Beta is a measure of the volatility of a fund relative to the Index. A beta greater than 1 is more volatile than the Index. R-Squared is a measure of how a fund's performance correlates with the Index's performance and it can help assess how likely it is that beta is statistically significant. Standard Deviation of return measures the amount of variation in historical performance from period to period.
- Annualized since inception figures use an inception date of 10/01/2017 and not the actual inception date of 09/29/2017 as only full month data is used in Market Risk calculations.

Mutual funds involve risk including the possible loss of principal. Past performance does not guarantee future results. The Fund's ethical values screening criteria could cause it to under-perform similar funds that do not have such screening criteria. The Fund can have risk related to option investing. Companies in the Utilities sector are subject to interest rate risk and cash flow risk. Companies in the technology industries have different risks including but not limited to products becoming obsolete, and entrance of competing products. Companies in the Industrial Sector carry various risks including, but not limited to, risk related to debt loads, intense competition, and sensitivity to economic cycles. The Fund can invest in smaller-sized companies which may experience higher failure rates than larger companies and normally have a lower trading volume than larger companies. There are unique risks associated with convertible securities, foreign securities, hedging, MLPs, preferred stocks, REITs, securities, and yieldcos that are covered in the Fund's prospectus and SAI.
