How did the Fund perform during the reporting period?

While a flurry of persistent macro news (e.g. election, tariffs, Artificial Intelligence ("AI") innovation) drove markets over the past year, the fiscal year came to a close on a constructive note. Despite strong returns for the Fund's broad based benchmark, the portfolio outperformed on a relative basis due to both stock selection and sector allocation. As we turned the page on the presidential election and investors acclimated to tariff uncertainty, we saw alpha generation in the Fund's focus sectors during the second half of the fiscal year. The Fund's investment strategy remains anchored in the belief that companies with sustainable competitive advantages in attractive industries run by great management teams that focus on value creation for their stakeholders generate superior long-term risk-adjusted returns.
