Investment Philosophy

We believe high-quality companies that excel at creating value for others and trade at a discount to intrinsic value offer superior long-term risk-adjusted returns.

The Adviser's judgment about the quality and intrinsic value of companies may prove to be incorrect. There is no guarantee that any investment will achieve its objectives, generate positive gains, or avoid losses.

Investment Process

The Adviser’s judgment about the quality and intrinsic value of companies may prove to be incorrect. There is no guarantee that any investment will achieve its objectives, generate positive gains, or avoid losses. We refer to long-term secular investment themes as those that tend to be persistent through market conditions.

Idea Generation

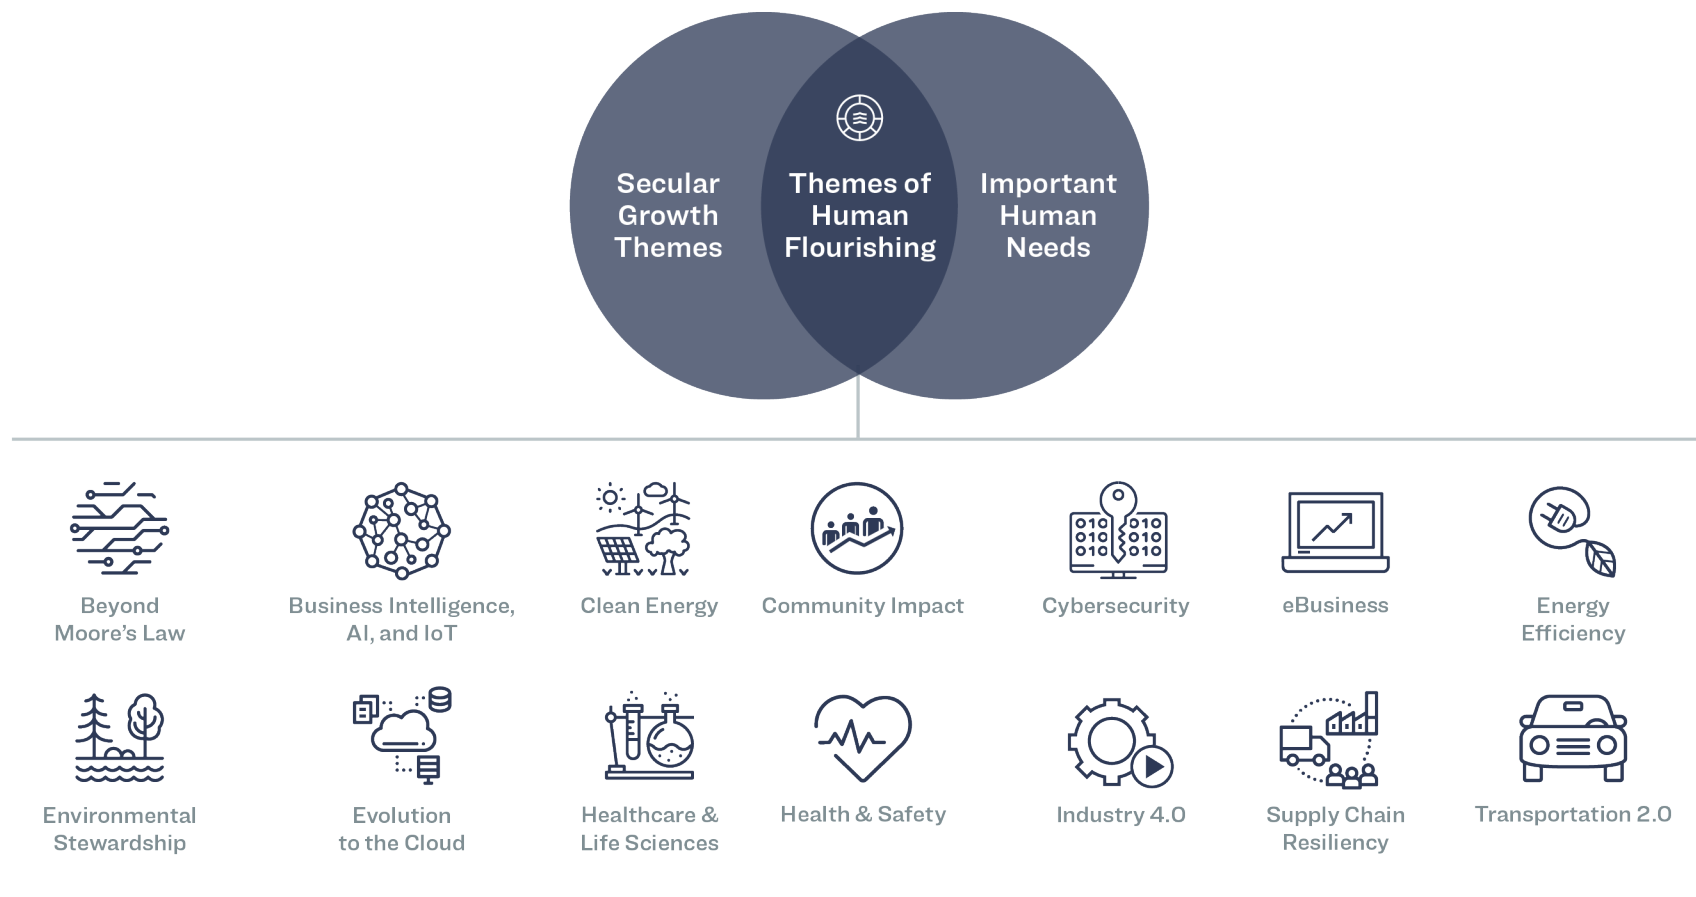

Start with themes, then identify companies we believe are best positioned for participation

- Understand the big picture of industries.
- Discern attractive long-term secular investment themes.
- Leverage consultants, industry experts, Key Opinion Leaders.
- Review industry specific reports, trends, and third-party research.
- Study competitors, suppliers, and customers of existing holdings.
- Identify companies we believe are best positioned for participation.

The Adviser's judgment about industries, secular themes, and particular companies may prove to be incorrect. There is no guarantee that any investment will achieve its objectives, generate positive returns, or avoid losses. We refer to long-term secular investment themes as those that tend to be persistent through market conditions.

Investment Themes

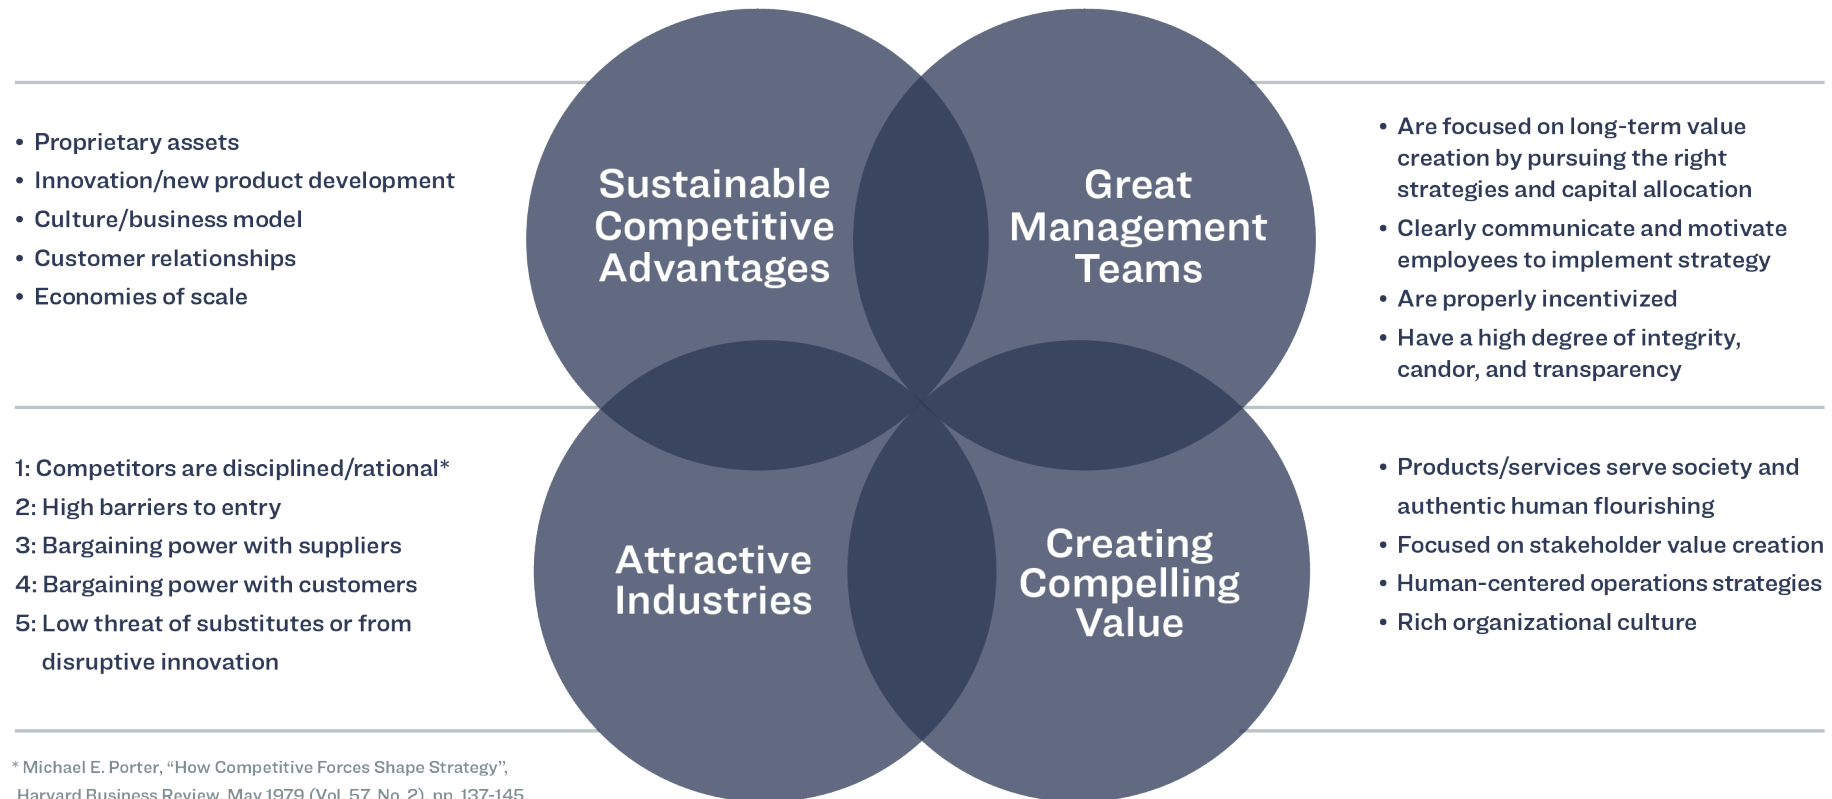

Seeking to invest in companies positioned at the nexus of long-term secular growth themes and important human needs.

These are representative examples of themes in the Eventide Funds. We refer to long-term secular investment themes as those that tend to be persistent through market conditions. The Adviser's judgment about secular themes may prove to be incorrect. There is no guarantee that any investment will achieve its objectives, generate positive returns, or avoid losses.

Qualitative Analysis

Look for “high-quality” companies, which we believe to have:

The Adviser’s judgment about the quality of a particular company may prove to be incorrect. There is no guarantee that any investment will achieve its objectives, generate positive returns, or avoid losses.

Our Research Framework: Business 360[®]

A holistic, proprietary framework for evaluating both a company's long-term competitive advantage and its impact on human flourishing by analyzing its operations and strategy through the lens of key stakeholders.

We believe what's right...

Companies that place a premium on:

- Customer satisfaction
- Employee morale
- Supplier partnership
- Societal impact
- Environmental stewardship

...is also smart.

Tend to have:

- Higher customer loyalty
- Higher productivity
- Resilient supply chains
- Stronger brands
- Sustainable productive yield

Reference to Eventide's Business 360[®] approach is provided for illustrative purposes only and indicates a general framework of guiding principles that inform Eventide's overall research process. The Adviser's judgment about the quality of a particular company may prove to be incorrect. There is no guarantee that any investment will achieve its objectives, generate positive returns, or avoid losses. The term "smart" is used for informational purposes only, and does not imply a certain level of skill of training by the Adviser.

Financial Analysis

Look for companies with long-term financial strength

QUALITIES:

- ✓ Revenue growth that is consistent and repeatable
- ✓ Pricing power
- ✓ Operating margins that are increasing and operating leverage so that profits increase with higher revenues
- ✓ Positive free cash flow
- ✓ Profitable or has the potential to achieve profitability in the next few years
- ✓ Strong Balance Sheet with low financial leverage
- ✓ Return on Invested Capital (ROIC) that is high and increasing

- Analyze historical financial performance.

- Model future financial performance:

3-YEAR FORECAST:

- Income Statement
- Balance Sheet
- Cash Flow Statement

5-TO 10-YEAR FORECAST:

- Earnings Power
- Free Cash Flow

- Compare our estimates with market consensus to assess opportunity.

The Adviser's analysis may prove to be incorrect. There is no guarantee that any investment will achieve its objectives, generate positive returns, or avoid losses.

Valuation Analysis

Look for companies with attractive value and potential

- Measure intrinsic value through Discounted Cash Flow (DCF) analysis.
- Build DCF model using forecast assumptions and then probability-adjust the calculated net present value based on our qualitative assessment of the company.
- Conduct a comparable company valuation analysis and use other valuation methodologies that we deem appropriate (e.g., sum-of-the-parts, historical multiples)
- Triangulate the valuation between the DCF (the primary method) and the other methods to better analyze different scenarios.
- Analyze different scenarios, such as upside and downside cases.
- Compare our estimates of the company's valuation to where the stock is currently trading.

We believe the best way to measure the intrinsic value of a company is with Discounted Cash Flow valuation analysis.

This takes into account the magnitude, timing, and risk of future free cash flows, discounted to today based on the company's cost of capital. It also takes into account the sustainability of its potential competitive advantages (reflected in the fade rate).

The Adviser's analysis may prove to be incorrect. There is no guarantee that any investment will achieve its objectives, generate positive returns, or avoid losses.

Macro Positioning

Position portfolio according to our macro views

- Establish macro views by synthesizing three key data streams:
 - Leading economic indicators
 - Valuation
 - Sentiment
- Position portfolio using cash and other tools to allow stock selection on fundamental grounds to mesh with our macro views at the portfolio level.

There is no guarantee that the Adviser's views will be accurate or come to pass. All investments involve risk, including the possible loss of principal.

Portfolio Construction

Risk Management

- Sector positioning largely the result of individual stock selection.
- Macroeconomic analysis may also be applied in decisions about asset allocation and position sizes.
- Seeks internal diversification from owning companies in various sectors and industries.
- Diversifies risk sensitivity to factors that would impact specific holdings such as end-market exposure, geographic exposures, and competitive dynamics.

There is no guarantee that the Adviser's approach will produce the desired results. All investments involve risk, including the possible loss of principal.

Portfolio Construction

Ongoing Evaluation

- Typically hold 25-50 companies.
- Devote approximately 50% of investment team time to actively monitoring portfolio holdings, scrutinizing investment case, and building conviction through circling diligence.
- Pay careful attention to both bull and (especially) bear arguments.
- Adjust estimates, price targets, conclusions, and position sizes to reflect changes in fundamentals.

There is no guarantee that the Adviser's approach will produce the desired results. All investments involve risk, including the possible loss of principal.

Sell Discipline

Continuously scrutinize investment case

- Investment case no longer intact
- No longer meets Eventide's Business 360[®] criteria
- Price target achieved
- Management transition or other concerns
- More attractive use of capital elsewhere

Hypothetical performance often shows markedly better results than actual management and should not be the basis for an investment decision. A variety of factors could impact investment decision making or otherwise cause differences between the hypothetical performance and actual investor returns.

2. The performance and risk factor comparisons are against the S&P 500 Total Return Index. Alpha is a measure of performance on a risk-adjusted basis. It takes the volatility (price risk) of a fund and compares its risk-adjusted performance to the Index. Any excess return of a fund relative to the return of the Index is a fund's alpha. Beta is a measure of the volatility of a fund relative to the Index. A beta greater than 1 is more volatile than the Index. R-Squared is a measure of how a fund's performance correlates with the Index's performance and it can help assess how likely it is that beta is statistically significant. Standard Deviation of return measures the amount of variation in historical performance from period to period.

Important Information

Mutual funds involve risk including the possible loss of principal. Past performance does not guarantee future results.

The Fund's ethical values screening criteria could cause it to under-perform similar funds that do not have such screening criteria. Large capitalization companies may be subject to more limited growth potential, and be less able to adapt to changing market conditions than smaller capitalization companies. It may be susceptible to an increased risk of loss because the Fund's investments are concentrated in the semiconductor and software industries and the Fund may invest a substantial portion of its assets in one or more sectors of the economy, such as the technology, industrial, consumer discretionary and healthcare sectors. Semiconductor companies carry risks such as limited product lines, competition for qualified personnel, rapid obsolescence of equipment, and dependence on patent and intellectual property rights, the loss or impairment of which can adversely affect profitability. Software companies carry risks such as rapidly changing technology, rapid product obsolescence, competitive pressures, cyclical market patterns, availability and price of components and frequent new product introductions. The Fund can have risk related to option investing. There are special risks associated with investments in foreign companies including exposure to currency fluctuations, less efficient trading markets, political instability and differing auditing and legal standards. The Fund can invest in private companies. Private investments include various risks including but not limited to lack of liquidity, capital commitment risk, and valuation risk. Private companies may not be financially profitable and have uncertain futures, subjecting them to additional risks.

Investors should consider a fund's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses carefully before investing or sending money. This and other important information can be found in the prospectus, which can be obtained at www.eventidefunds.com/prospectus or by calling 1-877-771-EVEN (3836). Please read the prospectus carefully before investing. Eventide Mutual Funds are distributed by Northern Lights Distributors, LLC, Member FINRA/SIPC, which is not affiliated with Eventide Asset Management, LLC.

Investment Ideals

We seek investment opportunities that reflect these ideals:

- ✓ We believe in respecting the life and dignity of all people. This means we invest in areas that honor life, like treatments seeking to address challenging diseases. This also means we seek to avoid profiting from anything designed to harm or exploit a life including abortion services, weaponry, and tobacco.
- ✓ We believe in preserving justice and peace. This means we look to invest in companies that are governed by strong ethics and take extra precautions when considering companies with ties to countries where we have concerns about human rights abuses.
- ✓ We believe in the importance of family and community. This means we look to serve marginalized communities and people. This also means we don't invest in harmful or addictive products or services such as violent entertainment or pornography.
- ✓ We believe in responsible management practices. This means we look to invest in companies with leadership teams that treat their employees, customers, and other stakeholders fairly. This also means we don't invest in companies with a concerning record of mistreatment, litigation, or regulatory actions.
- ✓ We believe in environmental stewardship. This means we look to invest in companies supporting the expansion to cleaner, more efficient sources of energy and companies leading in their industries toward better stewardship practices. This also means we don't invest in companies with a concerning record of environmental fines or abuse.

The Fund's ethical values screening criteria could cause it to underperform similar funds that do not have such screening criteria. This could be due to ethically acceptable companies falling out of favor with investors or failing to perform as well as companies that do not meet the Fund's ethical screening guidelines. The Adviser's judgment about the quality of a particular company may prove to be incorrect. There is no guarantee that any investment will achieve its objectives, generate positive returns, or avoid losses.

Values-Based Analysis

There are three dimensions to our approach to values-based investing:

AVOID

Create an investable universe of securities that pass our screens, grounded in our values.

EMBRACE

Conduct original Business 360[®] research to find the highest quality opportunities that contribute to human flourishing through value creation for society and other key stakeholders.

ENGAGE

Engage portfolio companies and security issuers on Business 360[®] issues to advocate for positive change.

The Strategy's ethical values screening criteria could cause it to underperform similar strategies that do not have such screening criteria. This could be due to ethically acceptable companies falling out of favor with investors or failing to perform as well as companies that do not meet the Strategy's ethical screening guidelines. Reference to Eventide's Business 360 approach is provided for illustrative purposes only and indicates a general framework of guiding principles that inform Eventide's overall research process.
