Season start of SkiArena Andermatt-Sedrun on 2 November 2018 Early opening of the slopes thanks to intensive snowfall

Andermatt, 30 October 2018 – Thanks to repeated intense snowfall and the positive weather forecast, SkiArena Andermatt-Sedrun will open its first lifts and slopes on Friday, November 2nd. Additional slopes will open on November 9th. At 2,000 meters the snow depth measures about one metre.

The Andermatt-Gurschen gondola cableway and the Gurschen-Gurschenalp 4-seat chairlift, along with all the pistes between Gurschen and Gurschenalp will open on November 2nd at 8:30 am. The lifts and slopes on the Gemsstock will open a week later.

To open the season, SkiArena Andermatt-Sedrun is offering day passes at special rates for the weekend from 2 to 4 November 2018: CHF 39 (adults), CHF 26 (adolescents) and CHF 13 (children). These tickets are available online and at the ticket offices. Season passes for the forthcoming winter season can also be purchased at the ticket offices.

SkiArena Andermatt-Sedrun

With over 120 kilometres of pistes and 22 lifts, SkiArena Andermatt-Sedrun is the largest ski resort in Central Switzerland, extending to the nearly 3,000-metre-high Gemsstock and over the Schneehüenerstock and Oberalp pass to Sedrun in the canton of Grisons. The ski link from Andermatt to Sedrun has been completed for the winter season 2018/19.

The eight mountain restaurants of the SkiArena offer culinary delights under the motto "Mountain Food". Whether a children-friendly menu, traditional fondue or a refined pasta dish – every guest can find what they like in the restaurants of the SkiArena.
