

UK Electronic Cigarette Research Forum

Date: Friday, 27th May 2022

Chair: Professor Lion Shahab, University College London

Theme: E-cigarettes and the youth population

Agenda

11:00 – 11:05:	Welcome, Introductions and Research Update
11:05 - 11:10:	Policy Update - Alizee Froguel, CRUK
11:10 – 11:35:	An examination of e-cigarette packaging and marketing and how youth and adults respond – King's College London project team
11:35 – 11:55:	Rapid growth in disposable e-cigarette use among young adults in Great Britain – Harry Tattan-Birch, University College London
11:55 – 12:15:	Smokefree GB and Smokefree Youth 2022 vaping findings - Deborah Arnott, Action on Smoking and Health
12:15 – 12:40:	Impacts of e-cigarette regulation via the EU Tobacco Products Directive on young people's use of e-cigarettes: a natural experiment – Dr Britt Hallingberg, Cardiff Metropolitan University
12:40 – 12:55:	Evidence gap map of studies and systematic reviews of the relationship between use/availability of e-cigarettes and subsequent smoking behaviour in young people – Monserrat Conde, University of Oxford
12:55 – 13:00:	Discussion & Close