Cancer Research UK's Will-Writing Service

Use one of our trusted legal partners to write a simple Will and we'll pick up the bill. We hope that, in return, you'll choose to leave a gift in your Will to Cancer Research UK, so we can continue to save and improve lives through our research, information and influence. Most people do. In fact, a third of the money we raise to beat cancer is from gifts in Wills.

Please choose one of the below options

I/We would like to support Cancer Research UK by leaving a gift in my/our Will

I/We do not want to support Cancer Research UK with a gift in my/our Will

Terms and conditions

Your use of our Will-Writing Service is subject to terms and conditions, which you can read at cruk.org/will-writing-terms

By proceeding, you are accepting these terms and conditions.

Would you like to keep up to date on our progress by email, phone and/or SMS?

We like to thank our supporters and let them know the progress their pledge can make possible for people affected by cancer.

We only send you communications that we think will be relevant and interesting to you. If you choose to hear from us, you'll receive:

- e-newsletters sharing our latest progress in patient trials and updates from our scientists on their pioneering research
- invites to our inspiring supporter events across the country, which include live music, lab tours and talks about our life-saving work
- opportunities to get involved in other ways, such as local fundraising events, campaigning and volunteering
- our annual supporter update, sharing how much we've raised and the steps we've taken to beat cancer over the previous year

We would be grateful if you would authorise the Will-writing provider to pass on your communication preferences to us by signing this form.
