Personal safety guide

- Please print this map and carry it with you throughout the event.
- The route is signposted. There are marshals and cyclists along the route to guide you around the course.
- The roads are open to traffic. Please only use the designated crossing points and follow all instructions from the marshals.
- You must use public transport to get you back to the finish area or home if you decide not to complete your walk.
- The normal rules of the highway code apply. You're responsible for your own safety when crossing roads.

Accurate at the time of publication.
Please note this map is not to scale and is subject to change.
