

CHASE CENTER TRAINING

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in the Chase Center Training. This training is an intensive nine week long pilot offering trade-specific training for San Francisco residents. Training will occur every Saturday and Sundays (7am-3:30pm) from March to May. Candidates must attend and participate in all components of the training. Although the Chase Center Training is being offered to support the workforce demands of large projects like the development of the Chase Center Arena, participation in the training does not guarantee employment working on the Arena development.

The unsubsidized nine week training will be divided into two components:

Job Readiness and Skills Development (4 weeks): Foundational training, industry certifications, trade awareness and physical education.

Trade Specific Modular Training (5 weeks): Intensive hands-on training. Trainees will be divided into of the four trades: Cement Masons, Ironworkers, Pile Drivers, or Laborers

Upon successful training completion, trainees will be connected to CityBuild's Employment Network Services for referral to employment opportunities across the city.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must be a graduate of a community based organization led construction-oriented program and must obtain a letter of recommendation from corresponding program
- San Francisco resident (proof required)
- Age 18 years old or older
- Have a High School Diploma or GED
- Have a valid Driver license
- Must be able to pass a drug test
- Social Security Card
- *Should not have been previously indentured into a union
