

There are many practical issues to manage when someone dies. Bereavement Advice Centre supports and advises on what you need to do next.

We will support you when someone dies and help you to:

- Register the death
- Notify banks, building societies, pension funds and all relevant financial institutions
- Notify shopping accounts
- Manage social media accounts
- Stop junk mail

We will provide guidance on:

- The coroner and inquest process
- Probate and other legal procedures
- Cohabitation complications
- Vacant property insurance
- Carer redundancy entitlements
- Money and tax issues
- Finding support

Our help and guidance is free and if you need legal services we will signpost them for you.
