

Rules of Intestacy

for deaths before 1st October 2014

Other notes

- Step relations, relations by marriage only & cohabitantes never qualify
- Formally adopted children are treated as being of whole blood (with both parents in common)
- Blood children who have been formally adopted into a different family before the death lose their entitlement