"I am not sure what we would do without (our Event Coordinator). Every request was met with speed and kindness. She is organized, detailed and just a joy to be around. She has made herself a crucial part of the A Christmas Affair team. I have watched the relationship between JLA and PEC grow year after year and this was hands down one of the best I have been a part of. We can't do what we do without PEC and everyone involved on your side to make it happen. A true partner!"

“Everything is always so well executed. All the new Event Coordinators were very helpful and responsive. It is a pleasure working with everyone (at the Palmer Events Center). People really care about us, and that is a good feeling. I’ve shared some customer comments with (the Director of Sales and Events) about the “vibe,” “ambiance” and “feel” of the event. Customers appreciate the facility and how everyone works with us to transform it into the Armadillo. You give us the tools and resources to make that happen. Thank you.”
