BOG GOVERNANCE RULE 1.4 ETHICS, CONFLICTS OF INTEREST, AND OUTSIDE CONSULTING ARRANGEMENTS

SECTION 1: PURPOSE & SCOPE.

- 1.1 West Virginia University seeks to ensure that all University Employees and Officials, including Faculty and Staff, are responsible for sustaining the highest ethical standards through values of integrity, honesty, and fairness in their teaching, research, service, and business practices.
- 1.2 This Rule provides the University's guidelines regarding real and perceived Conflicts of Interest both generally and in the context of research activities. It also provides guidelines that identify when University Faculty and Staff can appropriately enter into Consulting Arrangements with third parties outside of the scope of their employment with the University.
- 1.3 This Rule applies to all Employees of West Virginia University, West Virginia University Institute of Technology, and West Virginia University Potomac State College (collectively the "University").

SECTION 2: WEST VIRGINIA ETHICS ACT COMPLIANCE.

- 2.1 All University Faculty, Staff, Officials, and Unpaid Volunteers are required, by West Virginia state law, to comply with the West Virginia Ethics Act ("Ethics Act"), W. Va. Code §§ 6B-1-1 to -3-11 (2018), which is interpreted and administered by the West Virginia Ethics Commission. The state code, accompanying regulations, and other helpful information can be found at: <https://ethics.wv.gov/Pages/default.aspx>.
- 2.2 The Ethics Act prohibits certain behaviors deemed unethical by the Act. While not exhaustive, Section 2 of this Rule provides a brief overview of the most common Ethics Act requirements. Nonetheless, all University Faculty, Staff, Officials, and Unpaid Volunteers are expected to comply with all requirements of the Ethics Act. Additionally, University Faculty on a nine-month appointment must continue to comply with the Ethics Act during the months between their appointment terms (e.g., during the summer months).

2.3 Gifts.

2.3.1 Solicitation of Gifts. University Employees may not solicit a gift unless the solicitation is for a charitable purpose. The charitable purpose must also be one from which the Employee and the Employee's Family Members derive no direct personal benefit. University Employees may not directly solicit a subordinate for a gift even if the gift is for a charitable purpose.

2.3.2 Acceptance of Gifts. University Employees may not accept gifts from lobbyists, or from any person whom the Employee knows or has reason to know is doing or seeking to do business with the University of any kind; or has financial interests which may be substantially and materially affected, in a manner distinguishable from the public generally, by the performance or nonperformance of their official duties.

2.3.3 Exceptions. Notwithstanding these general prohibitions on the acceptance of gifts and the exemption outlined below in Section 2.4.1.2, the following types of gifts may be accepted by University Employees: meals and beverages if the payer is present, or any meal totaling $25.00 or less; ceremonial gifts of an insignificant monetary value; unsolicited gifts of nominal value; reasonable expenses related to attending a speaking engagement; gifts or free admission to charitable, cultural, or political events; gifts that are purely private and personal in nature; and gifts from relatives.

2.4 Use of Public Office for Private Gain. Generally, University Employees are prohibited from using their positions for their own private gain or the private gain of another.

2.4.1 Exception for Higher Education Employees.

2.4.1.1 The Ethics Act provides an exception for higher education employees, recognizing that the teaching, research, and service elements of higher education call for treatment that is different from the typical public employee or official.

2.4.1.2 Specifically, the Act provides that any person who is employed as a member of the Faculty or Staff of a public institution of higher education in the State of West Virginia and is engaged in teaching, research, consulting, or publication in their field of expertise and derives benefits from those activities is exempt from certain prohibitions set out in the Act (use of office for private gain, gifts, and interest in public contracts); provided that the activity is approved as part of the individual's employment contract, or has been approved by the individual's Dean or Vice President, or the University's President. See Section 7 for approval of outside Consulting Arrangements.

- 2.4.1.3 All employees must comply with the Ethics Act in carrying out all outside Consulting Arrangements.
- 2.4.2 Use of University Resources. University Employees may not use University-owned supplies, equipment, or other resources for personal projects or outside Consulting Arrangements. However, University Employees may use such resources for personal projects or outside Consulting Arrangements pursuant to an arrangement with the University to pay a fair market rate for those resources. University Employees may not use their subordinates to work on personal projects or outside Consulting Arrangements during work hours or compel them to do so on their own time. Any misuse of University resources is prohibited unless that use is de minimis, that is, involving only an insignificant amount of time, funds, supplies, personnel, or equipment.
- 2.5 Interests in Public Contracts. The Ethics Act prohibits University Employees from having a financial interest in any contract, purchase, or sale over which their position at the University gives them control, unless the total value of such contracts, purchases, or sales does not exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) in a calendar year. This prohibition extends to contracts in which the University Employee's Family Members have a financial interest, as well as to any business with which the University Employee or their Family Members are associated. This prohibition may be subject to the exemption outlined above in Section 2.4.1.2.
- 2.6 Endorsements. A University Employee may not endorse a particular product or business. This includes any product or business and includes case studies completed by a vendor. A commercial endorsement of a product or business is only permissible when it results in an overriding public benefit. Sponsorship agreements entered into on behalf of the University are deemed to have an overriding public benefit within the meaning of the Ethics Act.
- 2.7 Dual Compensation. No University Employee may receive compensation from two sources of state, county, or municipal government for working the same hours, except under certain limited circumstances.
- 2.8 Should any University Employee or officer have questions regarding compliance with the Ethics Act, please contact the Office of General Counsel.

SECTION 3: CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND CONFLICT OF COMMITMENT DEFINED; CONFLICT OF INTEREST COMMITTEE; CORRECTIVE ACTIONS FOR VIOLATIONS.

- 3.1 All University Employees owe their primary professional allegiance to the University. University Employees should be aware of the two types of conflicts: Conflicts of Interest and Conflicts of Commitment.

3.2 Conflicts of Interest.

3.2.1 A Conflict of Interest occurs when there is a divergence between a University Employee's private, personal relationships or interests and their professional obligations to the University such that a reasonable observer might question whether the individual's professional actions or decisions are determined by or substantially altered by considerations of personal benefit, gain, or advantage.

3.2.2 Whether a Conflict of Interest or the appearance of a Conflict of Interest exists depends on the situation, not on the character or actions of the individual. The determination of the existence of a Conflict of Interest or the appearance of a Conflict of Interest is done objectively on a case-by-case basis. Because the appearance of a Conflict of Interest can be as damaging or detrimental as an actual Conflict of Interest, for the purposes of this Rule, apparent Conflicts of Interest are treated the same as actual Conflicts of Interest. As a result, any appearance of a Conflict of Interest must also be disclosed and reviewed in accordance with this Rule by the Office of Conflict of Interest Compliance or the University Conflict of Interest Committee.

3.3 Conflicts of Commitment.

3.3.1 A University Employee's primary commitment of time and intellectual effort must be to the teaching, research, scholarship, and service missions of the University.

3.3.2 A University Employee's attempts to balance their primary commitment to the University with external, non-University activities can result in a real or apparent conflict regarding commitment of time and effort. When external activities exceed reasonable time limits or become primary professional responsibilities, then a Conflict of Commitment exists.

3.4 Conflict of Interest Committee.

3.4.1 The President shall establish and appoint a Conflict of Interest Committee to ensure the appropriate implementation and execution of this Rule. The members of the Committee should include, but are not limited to, representatives from the Provost's Office, Strategic Initiatives Office, Research Office, and Health Sciences Center; two Faculty representatives appointed by the Provost; and with advice from the Office of General Counsel.

3.4.2 Members of the Conflict of Interest Committee are prohibited from participating in a review of their own Conflict of Interest disclosure form.

3.5 Corrective Actions for Violations.

- 3.5.1 Any University Employee who fails to abide by the requirements within this Rule shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, including warning, suspension, termination, or other disciplinary action as may be appropriate.
- 3.5.2 Furthermore, although conduct may not violate this Rule, it may still be prohibited by the University under a different rule, policy, or standard of behavior. Accordingly, in such cases, the University reserves the ability to take any necessary action.

SECTION 4: INSTITUTIONAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST.

- 4.1 An Institutional Conflict of Interest may exist when the personal financial holdings of a University Official which, by virtue of their institutional authority, may affect or reasonably appear to affect institutional processes, research, business transactions, or other activities at the University.
- 4.2 Disclosure Requirements. University Officials must annually disclose Significant Financial Interests for Institutional Conflicts of Interest to the Office of Conflict of Interest Compliance by July 31 each year.
- 4.2.1 Each University Official must submit an Institutional Conflict of Interest Disclosure regardless of whether or not the individual has a Significant Financial Interest for Institutional Conflicts of Interest to report.
- 4.2.2 Each University Official must sign and certify the annual disclosure as accurate and complete.
- 4.2.3 Each University Official must update their annual disclosure within thirty (30) days of the development of a new Significant Financial Interest.
- 4.2.4 Each University Official must complete an initial disclosure form within sixty (60) days upon commencing employment.
- 4.3 Review of Disclosure Forms. Institutional Conflict of Interest Disclosures submitted by University Officials shall be reviewed annually, and on an ad hoc basis as necessary, by the Conflict of Interest Committee to determine if an individual has an Institutional Conflict of Interest or the appearance of an Institutional Conflict of Interest. If a Conflict is identified, the Committee may determine that the Conflict can be managed through an appropriate Management Plan. If the Committee determines that the Conflict cannot be managed, then it shall recommend steps to resolve the Conflict.

SECTION 5: CONFLICT OF INTEREST IN RESEARCH.

- 5.1 A Conflict of Interest in Research may exist where a Significant Financial Interest for Research could directly affect or reasonably appear to affect the design, conduct, or reporting of research or other activity sponsored by an outside entity.
- 5.2 Disclosure Requirements. All Investigators of any University research project must disclose any Significant Financial Interests for Research to the Office of Conflict of Interest Compliance or its successor in accordance with the relevant rolling deadlines set by the Office of Conflict of Interest Compliance. All Investigators must submit a Conflict of Interest in Research Disclosure at least annually.
- 5.2.1 All Investigators must submit a Conflict of Interest in Research Disclosure regardless of whether or not he or she has a Significant Financial Interest for Research to report.
- 5.2.2 All Investigators must submit and certify the disclosure as accurate and complete.
- 5.2.3 All Investigators must update their disclosure within thirty (30) days of the development of a new Significant Financial Interest for Research.
- 5.2.4 If an Investigator has not previously submitted an annual Conflict of Interest in Research Disclosure, the Investigator must submit a Conflict of Interest in Research Disclosure prior to submitting a research proposal seeking external funds or otherwise participating in any research activity regardless of the source of funding.
- 5.3 Review of Conflict of Interest in Research.
- 5.3.1 Conflict of Interest in Research Disclosures submitted by Investigators shall be reviewed by the Office of Conflict of Interest Compliance. This Office shall determine if an Investigator has a Conflict of Interest in Research or the appearance of a Conflict of Interest in Research. If a Conflict is identified, the Office may determine that the Conflict can be managed through an appropriate Management Plan. If the Office determines that the Conflict cannot be managed, then it shall recommend steps to resolve the Conflict.
- 5.3.2 At the discretion of the Office of Conflict of Interest Compliance, an Investigator's Conflict of Interest in Research Disclosure may be immediately referred to the University Conflict of Interest Committee for review and determination, if the information contained within the Disclosure appears to contain a complex or significant Conflict.

- 5.3.3 An Investigator may request a review by the University Conflict of Interest Committee of the decision of the Office of Conflict of Interest Compliance. The Committee may then review the Investigator's Conflict of Interest Disclosure and make a final determination on whether a Conflict exists, whether such a Conflict can be managed, or whether the proposed Management Plan is appropriate. If the Committee determines that the Conflict cannot be managed, then it shall recommend steps to resolve the Conflict. The decision of the Committee cannot be appealed.

SECTION 6: OTHER CONFLICTS OF INTEREST.

- 6.1 To the extent a University Employee develops a real or perceived Conflict of Interest that is not expressly covered by this Rule, University Employees must disclose this Conflict to their immediate supervisor within thirty (30) days of the development of the Conflict.
- 6.2 The University Employee's supervisor shall report the disclosed Conflict of Interest to Talent & Culture (for Staff) or the Provost's Office (for Faculty) to develop with the supervisor an appropriate Management Plan. At the discretion of Talent & Culture or the Provost's Office, an Employee's Conflict may be referred to the University Conflict of Interest Committee for review and determination.
- 6.3 The Employee may request that the University Conflict of Interest Committee review the initial decision of the Conflict by Talent & Culture or the Provost's Office. The Committee shall then review Employee's Conflict and make a final determination on whether a Conflict exists, whether such a Conflict can be managed, or whether the proposed Management Plan is appropriate. If the Committee determines that the Conflict cannot be managed, then it shall recommend steps to resolve the Conflict.
- 6.4 University Employees are required to fully comply with all disclosure requirements of third parties for any activity that requires a disclosure of a Conflict of Interest. Such disclosures may be required when engaging in various activities, including but not limited to seeking research grants, participating in speaking engagements, or contributing to a publication.

SECTION 7: CONFLICT OF COMMITMENT; OUTSIDE CONSULTING ARRANGEMENTS.

- 7.1. Generally. Faculty and Non-Classified Employees may engage in limited Consulting Arrangements outside of their employment responsibilities to the University on subjects that are within their area of professional expertise.
- 7.1.1 However, such outside Consulting Arrangements must, at minimum, meet the following requirements:

7.1.1.1 it must further develop the individual professionally or serve the community, state, or nation in an area related to the individual's assignment or professional expertise;

7.1.1.2 it must not constitute a Conflict of Commitment with the individual's University responsibilities, nor interfere with the individual's teaching, research and service to the University; and

7.1.1.3 it must not be in conflict with the mission and objectives of the University.

7.2 Limitations on Outside Consulting Arrangements.

7.2.1 For Faculty and Non-Classified Employees that are not leave eligible, outside Consulting Arrangements may occupy no more than, on average, one working day per week of an individual's total University work time during the term of their yearly appointment. For Faculty and Non-Classified Employees that are leave eligible, the employee must take annual leave when completing any outside Consulting Arrangements during the individual's normal working hours.

7.2.2 However, individuals must complete all University obligations and employment responsibilities.

7.2.3 The following types of outside activities are expressly prohibited for full-time Faculty and Non-Classified Staff:

7.2.3.1 An individual cannot participate in part-time employment outside of the University that they regularly commit to one or more days each week during normal University working hours.

7.2.3.2 An individual cannot provide regular instructional service during their appointment period to other educational institutions without permission of their Dean.

7.2.3.3 An individual cannot, as part of an outside Consulting Arrangement, endorse a commercial product or service.

7.2.3.4 If an individual's compensation is fully funded by a federal grant requiring the individual to commit 100% of their reported effort to the grant, that individual cannot participate in outside Consulting Arrangements.

7.2.4 Although participation in an academic conference, workshop or seminar does not usually constitute a Consulting Arrangement, the organizing of, operating of, or participating in such meetings for personal profit does. Such paid activity must be appropriately disclosed and approved in advance.

7.2.5 University Faculty and Non-Classified Employees engaging in outside Consulting Arrangements are not permitted to use the University name, logo, or marks. However, the University Faculty and Non-Classified Employees may use the University name to convey biographical information.

7.2.6 University Faculty and Non-Classified Employees are prohibited from using University resources, including but not limited to University email and electronic devices, the individual's office, and other University Employees' time, in carrying out their responsibilities under their outside Consulting Arrangements, unless the use is de minimis in accordance with the provisions of the Ethics Acts or the employee's use is pursuant to an arrangement with the University to pay a fair market rate for those resources.

7.2.7 An individual cannot use University resources to advertise or endorse their personal Consulting Arrangements.

7.2.8 Guidelines for Participation in SBIR and STTR Programs.

7.2.8.1 The University understands and recognizes that Small Business Innovation Research ("SBIR") and Small Business Technology Transfer Research ("STTR") programs supported by several federal agencies are intended to cultivate and promote small businesses. These programs encourage small businesses to develop and create innovative technology, encourage commercialization of technology, and promote the economic and social benefit of the public.

7.2.8.2 It is with this understanding that the University encourages participation in these programs. As a result, the University may approve any conflict created by the University Employee's ownership or involvement in a small business concern ("SBC") that is participating in either SBIR or STTR programs.

7.2.8.3 However, the University Employee still must comply with all Conflict of Interest disclosure requirements in this Rule and must disclose the interest in the SBC that is participating in either SBIR and STTR programs. Where appropriate, the Employee may be required to follow a Conflict of Interest Management Plan.

7.3 Approval of New Outside Consulting Arrangements.

7.3.1 Prior to agreeing to any outside Consulting Arrangement, an individual must submit a Consulting Arrangement Approval Form to the Dean of their College or School or the Vice President of their Unit. If an individual reports directly to the President, the President must approve the Form.

7.3.2 The individual must fully complete the required Form and provide other reasonable information to the Dean or Vice President upon request. At minimum, the Form must include a description of the Consulting Arrangement, entity with whom the arrangement is with, and the anticipated time commitment for the arrangement. The individual must certify that the information contained within the Form is complete and accurate.

7.3.3 Upon review, the Dean, Vice President, or President shall determine if the request is appropriate, does not constitute a Conflict of Commitment or create a Conflict of Interest, and abides by the guidelines provided within this Rule.

7.3.4 Should a Dean, Vice President, or President deny a request for an outside Consulting Arrangement, the individual may request that decision be reviewed by the University's Conflict of Interest Committee for a final determination. The final determination of the Conflict of Interest Committee cannot be appealed.

7.4 Annual Disclosure of Outside Consulting Arrangements. All Faculty and Non-Classified Employees who have engaged in outside Consulting Arrangements within the past fiscal year (i.e., July 1 to June 30) must submit a Consulting Arrangement Annual Disclosure Form to the individual's Dean or Vice President by August 31 each year. The individual must sign and certify the Form as accurate and complete. This Form must, at minimum, summarize all Consulting Arrangements that the individual has participated in within the last calendar year providing for each arrangement individually, a brief description of the arrangement, the entity whom the arrangement is with, and the total time committed within the calendar year.

7.5 Compliance with this Rule does not relieve any University Employee of their obligation to comply with all other professional disclosure requirements.

SECTION 8: UNIVERSITY SPONSORED CONSULTING ARRANGEMENTS.

8.1. From time to time, the University may engage with an outside entity to sell a Faculty or Non-Classified Employee's services to a third party to advance the University's mission. These arrangements, where the University is the contracting party and receives the financial benefit, are called University Sponsored Consulting Arrangements.

8.2. University Sponsored Consulting Arrangements may only be entered into with the approval and permission of a Dean or Vice President. The agreements must be reduced to writing and signed by the appropriate University Official.

8.3. University Employees are permitted to commit their time to the third party under these arrangements. Providing services under these arrangements are considered part of the Employee's employment responsibilities to the University. However, the Employee should ensure that their time commitment is consistent with the terms of the written agreement.
