BOG TALENT AND CULTURE RULE 3.1 ADMINISTRATION AND EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

SECTION 1: PURPOSE & SCOPE.

- 1.1 The University seeks to design and administer fair and flexible human resource practices for all employees that allow the University to attract, retain, and motivate high performing Employees.
- 1.2 This Rule outlines the guiding principles for establishing human resource practices for all University employee types and covers other employment practices required by State law. This Rule applies to all Classified Employees, Non-Classified Employees, Faculty, and any other employee positions of the West Virginia University Board of Governors. Specific application to various job types may be limited by each section below

SECTION 2: DELEGATION TO PRESIDENT GENERAL ADMINISTRATION OF HUMAN RESOURCES PRACTICES.

- 2.1 To enable the University to function in a proper and expeditious manner and to advance the University's mission and objectives, the Board of Governors delegates to the President the following authority:
 - 2.1.1 To administer a system for all personnel matters, including but not limited to, hiring, promotions, demotions, transfers, compensation and benefits administration, discipline, performance management, alternative dispute resolution, and dismissal.
 - 2.1.2 To administer a system for hearing eligible employee grievances and appeals. Provided, that the grievance procedure established in State law is the exclusive mechanism for hearing eligible employee grievances and appeals.
 - 2.1.3 To contract and pay for disability insurance or any other supplemental employee benefit for applicable Classified Employees, Non-Classified Employees, Faculty, and other employee positions. Provided, that if the disability insurance or supplemental employee benefit program incurs expense to the University, then the President shall first obtain approval from the Board of Governors.

2.1.4 To establish the standard work week and work schedules for Classified and Non-Classified Employees. Provided, that any significant and material change to the hours of the standard work week shall be approved by the Board of Governors before implementation by the President.

2.2 All human resource practices shall be consistent with Federal and State law and any Rule adopted by the Board of Governors.

SECTION 3. ENGAGEMENT WITH STAFF COUNCIL ON TALENT & CULTURE RULES, POLICIES, AND PROCEDURES.

3.1 Pursuant to W. Va. Code §18B-7-1, et seq., §18B-9A-1, et seq., and §18B-9B-1, the Vice President for Talent and Culture shall meet at least quarterly with representatives of Staff Council to discuss the implementation and effectiveness of any Board of Governors Talent & Culture Rule. Where appropriate, the Vice President for Talent and Culture shall make recommendations to the President or Board of Governors to address concerns or issues identified by Staff Council regarding the implementation and effectiveness of the Talent & Culture Rules.

3.2 The Vice President for Talent and Culture shall initiate a comprehensive external review of human resource practices at least once every five years, relating to the University's compliance with W. Va. Code §18B-7-1, et seq., §18B-9A-1, et seq., and §18B-9B-1. Staff Council shall be given the opportunity to speak with the external auditors before the start of the audit and after its completion.

3.3 Where appropriate, the Vice President for Talent and Culture is encouraged to seek input from the University community, including, but not limited to, Staff Council, regarding the development and implementation of internal human resource policies and procedures.

SECTION 4: ADDITIONAL EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES REGARDING CLASSIFIED EMPLOYEES.

4.1 Part-Time Classified Employees.

4.1.1 A Unit supervisor, in consultation and concurrence with the Vice President for Talent and Culture, shall only establish part-time classified positions based on the operational needs of a Unit, and shall not create part-time classified positions solely to avoid the payment of benefits.

- 4.1.2 All qualified Classified Employees who hold contracts that are at least nine-month and less than twelve-month in duration shall be given the first opportunity to accept part-time or full-time summer positions at the University before a new employee is hired for such a position.

4.2 Work Schedules for Classified Employees.

- 4.2.1 Unit supervisors are discouraged from making temporary, non-emergency, or institutionally-imposed changes to a Classified Employee's work schedule.
 - 4.2.1.1 However, a Unit supervisor may temporarily change a Classified Employee's work schedule due to a Unit's operational needs.
- 4.2.2 Any change to a Classified Employee's work schedule due to a Unit's operational need must be communicated directly to the affected Classified Employee. When possible, the Unit supervisor shall provide a Classified Employee with a 15 calendar day notice regarding work schedule changes.
- 4.2.3 A Unit supervisor may approve a Flex-Time work schedule for a Classified Employee, consistent with the operational needs and practices of the Unit and any relevant internal policies and procedures on human resource practices. Any expectations associated with the granting of a Flex-Time schedule shall be communicated directly to the affected Classified Employee.

4.3 Continuing Education and Professional Development for Classified Employees.

- 4.3.1 The Vice President for Talent & Culture shall establish and operate a continuing education and development program for Classified Employees that encourages and supports continuing education and professional development. However, Unit supervisors, with requested assistance from the Vice President Talent & Culture, shall primarily be responsible for identifying developmental opportunities in partnership with the individual Classified Employee.
- 4.3.2 Subject to appropriate supervisory approval, any Classified Employee is eligible to participate in continuing education and professional development programs appropriate to his or her position.
 - 4.3.2.1 Any University programs or practices shall require that Classified Employees be selected on a nonpartisan basis using fair and meaningful criteria which afford all individuals opportunities to enhance their skills and productivity in the workforce.
- 4.3.3 Funds allocated or made available for continuing education and professional development may be used to compensate and pay expenses for any Classified Employees pursuing additional academic study or training to equip themselves better for their job duties.

- 4.3.3.1 The programs or practices may include reasonable provisions for the continuation or return of any Classified Employee receiving the benefits of the education or training, or for reimbursement to the University for expenditures incurred on behalf of the individual.
