

Which region do you come from?

Latin America and Caribbean

North America

Oceania

What makes a good mentor?

What do you expect to contribute and/or gain from becoming a mentor?

more intimate understanding of GBIF

better understanding of the gbif community needs and skills

Best methods of data mobilization and organization.

Getting more people involved in the decision making process using biodiversity data.

Skills and Knowledge on Data Mobilisation

Help in data mobilization in Africa make the gbif infrastructure more widely used

Get more people to contribute data to GBIF in Africa

I expect to learn more when interacted with other mentors

What do you expect to contribute and/or gain from becoming a mentor?

make the gbif community bigger

Node Establishment and Management

Encourage people to understand importance of sharing data for decision making and policy formulation

Grow the community in the Pacific & add more datasets from our region!

Network with other mentors to improve on mg knowledge and share with others

Experience to articulate issues related to data publishing share the skills and expertise gained over the past years

Skills, Data mobilization

Communication tips, CESP project management, training plans, support with Spanish language, data portal access, publication process,...

What do you expect to contribute and/or gain from becoming a mentor?

Improved networking Share my experiences about my work and country

I will try to deal with data publishing duplication

Train biodiversity data holding institutions in Africa to mobilize data

