[3] With the exception of those decisions which, pursuant to Article 34.2 and 34.3 of the EFC Statutes are either subject to the ratification or the exclusive competence of the Board, all rights, powers and obligations described herein in respect of the Board are equally exercisable by the Executive Committee.

Article 2 – EFC Workstreams

[1] Many of EFC's activities and the pursuit of its objectives are organised around the EFC Workstreams. Each Workstream represents a key area of activity undertaken by EFC in line with its statutory goals and the strategic objectives set out by the Board.

Article 38 – Adoption, entry into force, abrogation and modification

[1] These Organisational Regulations were originally adopted by the Board at its meeting on 4 December 2008 in Milan.

[2] They were subsequently amended by the Board at its meetings on: 19 March 2013 in Milan, 2 October 2017 in Munich, 29 July 2019 in Nyon, 10 June 2023 in Istanbul, 10 August 2023 online, on 4 September 2024 in Dublin and on 28 September 2026 in Copenhagen, this pursuant to the powers installed on the Board in Article 24 let. l) and m) of the 2023 ECA Statutes.

[3] Except as provided below, these Regulations take effect on 1 October 2026. To the extent that any article in these Regulations addresses matters covered by amendments in the 2026 edition of the EFC Statutes which do not take effect until the start of the 2027–2031 EFC Cycle, the corresponding provisions of the 2024 edition of the Organisational Regulations, including those concerning the Election Procedure and Membership Policy, shall remain in force.

B. PROCEDURE FOR ELECTION OF AND WITHIN THE BOARD

These Regulations have been adopted by the Board pursuant to Article 24 let. m) of the 2023 edition of the EFC Statutes. In case of any contradiction between these Regulations and the EFC Statutes, in force from time to time, the latter will prevail.

General principles

[1] During the first General Assembly of each EFC Cycle, Board Members of the new EFC Board will be elected. The term of office is set out in Article 25 of the EFC Statutes with the possibility of renewal subject to the rules set out in the Articles 21.4 to 21.7 of the EFC Statutes.

[2] Candidates for elections by the General Assembly shall be the Members entitled to propose candidates for the relevant Board position pursuant to the EFC Statutes and these Regulations. Candidates shall be proposed to the CEO in writing by the date set by the CEO on the call for candidates which, in principle, will not be later than 14 days before the date set for the elections. The list of candidates as well as all necessary information on the election procedure will be forwarded to all Members entitled to take part in the election. Each candidate shall complete and submit the relevant eligibility documentation prescribed by the Board and/or the CEO, including for example a criminal record, and may be subject to a regulatory disqualification verification and a politically exposed person (PEP) & sanctions screening. Where the CEO has reasonable doubts regarding a candidate's eligibility or the information provided, the CEO may refer the matter to the Statutory Affairs Committee for review and recommendation.

[3] Candidates for election to the Board must fulfil the eligibility requirements set out in the EFC Statutes and Organisational Regulations at the time of submitting their application.

[4] Following their election, Board Members shall sign an acceptance declaration in the form prescribed by the Board. Such declaration may include confidentiality obligations, Conflict of Interest declarations and any other commitments required by the Board.

[5] Elections shall be held by secret ballot (via ballot papers, electronic votes or as otherwise directed by the Board).

[6] Votes by proxy shall be permitted if they fulfil the following cumulative requirements. The proxy must be sent directly to the EFC Administration by the Member who cannot be present at the General Assembly and/or the election and this at minimum 24 hours prior to the start of the actual elections. The proxy shall be signed by a legal representative of the relevant Member and shall be sent directly to the EFC Administration by official means. Proxies that according to the EFC Administration do not meet the cumulative prerequisites above will be held invalid.

[7] Votes by letter shall not be permitted, unless otherwise decided by the Board.

Election of the Board

[8] For the purposes of the elections, Members shall be divided into the relevant elective groups as set out in Articles 4.1 and 22.3 of the EFC Statutes.

Clubs Satisfying Men's Criteria for Ordinary/Associated Membership
Subdivision	Men's Association Coefficient	No. of Board members
1	1-6	15 - less the number of Board Members from Subdivision 1 already appointed or elected to the Board pursuant to Articles 20.1 c) and d) of the EFC Statutes
2	7-15	7 - less the number of Board Members from Subdivision 2 already appointed or elected to the Board pursuant to Articles 20.1 c) and d) of the EFC Statutes
3	16-28	5 - less the number of Board Members from Subdivision 3 already appointed or elected to the Board pursuant to Articles 20.1 c) and d) of the EFC Statutes
4	29 and below	3 - less the number of Board Members from Subdivision 4 already appointed or elected to the Board pursuant to Articles 20.1 c) and d) of the EFC Statutes
Clubs Satisfying Women's Criteria for Ordinary/Associated Membership
Subdivision	Women's Association Coefficient	No. of Board members
Women's	1-4	1
Women's	Any	2

[9] Each Subdivision and relevant group shall elect the number of Board Members attributed to it in the EFC Statutes. The Members can vote for as many candidates as there are seats available in their respective Subdivision or group, in compliance with the EFC Statutes (notably, the relevant eligibility provisions) and this Procedure. To ensure that the statutory eligibility requirements are met, elections in Subdivision 1 and Women's may be split into separate phases. A vote is null and void if more candidates than available seats are chosen.

[10] Two neutral scrutinisers per subgroup will be appointed, who will, in principle, consist of (i) one person from the EFC Administration or a qualified external counsel, and (ii) one football club representative who is not a candidate. The scrutinisers will ensure that the election procedures in their subgroup are respected. Once all relevant Members present or represented in the subgroup have voted, the scrutinisers will confirm the final vote count.

[11] Each candidate will have the opportunity to present his/her candidature to its Subdivision. In principle, five minutes maximum are allowed per candidate. However, the scrutiniser is allowed to shorten or increase this period in case of a high/low number of candidates. A presentation of the candidature in writing is also possible.

[12] The elections shall be by simple majority of the Members eligible to vote who are present or represented (abstentions will not be counted).

[13] Considering the gender quota contained in Article 20.3 let. e) of the EFC Statutes, elections will be conducted in stages, following the order set out in Article 20.1 let. a) to g).

Election of the Board Members according to Article 20 let. a) of the EFC Statutes [14] As per the EFC Statutes, the election of the Board Members set out in Article 20 let. a) shall be subject to the following requirements:

- In respect of the elections of the Ordinary Members for Subdivision 1, there must be one candidate elected from each country comprising Subdivision 1. Therefore, once all votes are counted, the most voted candidate from each country will be elected, irrespective of their ultimate total number of votes or ranking. After this initial election (to ensure that one candidate is elected from each country in Subdivision 1) a final election shall occur involving all remaining candidates for the remaining available seat(s). Subject to an overall country-cap of two (2) elected members belonging to Members affiliated to the same UEFA Member, the highest ranked candidate(s) from any country shall be elected.
- In respect of the elections of the Ordinary Members for Subdivisions 2, 3 and 4, the candidate(s) with the highest number of votes shall be elected, subject to there being only one elected member per country. In case there is more than one candidate from the same country among the most voted candidates, only the most voted one will be elected and the vacancy shall be allocated to the next most voted candidate who has not yet been elected and who belongs to a country without an elected member.

Election of the Board Members according to Article 20 let. b) of the EFC Statutes [15] As per the EFC Statutes, the elections of the two (2) Board Members set out in Article 20 let. b) shall be subject to the following requirement:

- Both positions are open to candidates representing Subdivision 1 Ordinary Members and/or Associated Members, subject to the overall country-cap limitation set out in paragraph 14 above.

Election of the Board Members according to Article 20 let. e) of the EFC Statutes [16] As per the EFC Statutes, the elections of the four (4) Board Members according to Article 20 let. e) shall be subject to the following requirements:

- The Associated Members of Subdivisions 1, 2, 3 and 4 shall elect one Board Member each.
- The Board Members elected by the Associated Members hereunder shall belong to Members affiliated to different UEFA Member Associations than those elected under Article 20 let. a) and b), unless the number of required elections for the Subdivision exceeds the number of UEFA Member Associations in that Subdivision, in which case an overall cap of two (2) elected members belonging to Members affiliated to different UEFA Member Associations applies.

Additional principles

[17] Subject to paragraphs 14, 18 and 19 below, there will be only one ballot.

[18] In the event of a tie among two or more candidates for one or more seats after the first ballot, a second ballot will be held amongst those candidates who obtained the ex-aequo highest number of votes during the first ballot. At this second ballot, according to the number of seats that remained available, candidate/s is/are elected that receive the most valid votes. After the second ballot, in the event of a tie among two or more candidates for the remaining seat/s, a third ballot will be held amongst those candidates who obtained the ex-aequo highest number of votes during the second ballot. At this third ballot, according to the number of seats that remained available, candidate/s is/are elected that receive the most valid votes. After this third ballot, in the event of a tie among two or more candidates for the remaining seat/s, the Board will decide whether there will be further ballots until all remaining seats have been designated, or there will be a drawing of lots.

[19] In the event that any Board seat available for election is, for whatever reason (including due to there being no eligible candidates), not filled pursuant to the process outlined above, the Board will decide, at its entire discretion, whether (i) to issue an immediate call for candidates for election in respect of the available seat at that same General Assembly; or (ii) postpone the relevant election to a later date; or (iii) occupy that available slot by means of an appointment.

[20] Following the procedure for election of the Board, all Board Members shall be given the opportunity to express their interest and candidature to the CEO prior to and in relation to the elections as per the following paragraph.

Election of the EFC Chair and Vice-Chairs

[21] The newly elected Board elects from among its members:

a. A Chair, who shall act as Chair of EFC and who represents one of the football clubs belonging to the first Subdivision in the table above;

b. A first, a second, a third and a fourth Vice-Chair, representing, in principle, the Subdivisions; and

c. A fifth Vice-Chair who shall represent the Ordinary Members that are Women's Football Leading Clubs.

[22] Each eligible candidate will have the opportunity to present their candidature. In principle five minutes are allowed per eligible candidate.

[23] The CEO will act as scrutiniser and will appoint a second scrutiniser from amongst the Board Members who are not a candidate.

[24] Each Board Member shall have one vote.

[25] Votes shall be open (show of hands) unless at least half of the Board Members present request a secret ballot.

[26] Elections within the Board shall be decided by simple majority and the candidate(s) with the highest number of votes shall be elected.

[27] In the event of a tie among two or more candidates for one or more seats after the first vote, a second vote will be held amongst those candidates who obtained the ex-aequo highest number of votes during the first vote. At this second vote, according to the number of seats that remained available, the candidate/s is/are elected that receive(s) the most valid votes. After the second vote, in the event of a tie among two or more candidates for the remaining seat/s, the Board will decide whether there will be further rounds of votes until all remaining seats have been designated, or there will be a drawing of lots.

Election of the EFC Representatives on the UEFA ExCo and the UC3 Board of Administration

[28] In accordance with Article 22.2 of the EFC Statutes, at the last Board meeting prior to the first General Assembly in a new EFC Cycle, the Board shall elect, from among the Board Members, two (2) EFC Representatives to the UEFA ExCo as per Article 20.1 let. c); and appoint five (5) EFC Representatives to the UC3 Board of Administration as per Article 20.1 let. d).

[29] Prior to the election, all Board Members shall be given the opportunity to express their interest and candidature following which the election of these representatives shall follow the rules provided for in para. 22 to 27 of this Procedure.

C. EFC MEMBERSHIP POLICY

These Regulations have been adopted by the Board pursuant to Article 24 let. m) of the 2023 edition of the EFC Statutes. In case of any contradiction between these Regulations and the EFC Statutes, in force from time to time, the latter will prevail.

General requirements for Ordinary and Associated Membership

[1] Football clubs applying to become a member must agree to abide by the EFC Statutes and must not be in breach and/or have breached the EFC Statutes, including the objectives of EFC as established therein. Football clubs applying to become a Member must be organised in a professional manner and shall not be in significant financial problems that lead to a situation foreseen in Article 9.2 let. a) of the EFC Statutes.

[2] It is further specified that the Board may refuse the application for membership of any football club which (i), according to Article 3.2 of the EFC Statutes, is prevented from participating in UEFA club competitions due to match-fixing or other conduct attributable to them that substantially undermines competition integrity, including organised doping, corruption or similar misconduct; and/or (ii) whose membership of the organisation may otherwise undermine or disrupt the activities of EFC or the pursuance of its objectives as foreseen in the EFC Statutes.

Requirements for Associated Membership

[3] Pursuant to Article 6 of the EFC Statutes, and without being exhaustive, the following football clubs are eligible to become Associated Members:

- EFC Founding Members;
- Football clubs where either the Men's or Women's team is currently playing in the top division of a UEFA Member Association or has played in the relevant top division during the current or immediately previous EFC Cycle;
- Football clubs that have participated in the group or league stage of a UEFA Club Competition at least once in the past 10 years; and
- Football clubs which were eligible to be Ordinary or Associated Members in the previous EFC Cycle, but that no longer meet the eligibility criteria to remain Ordinary or Associated Members for the new EFC Cycle.

Transition of Membership from one EFC cycle to the next

[4] During its last meeting of the EFC Cycle, the Board shall be informed on the number and identity of football clubs eligible for EFC membership in accordance with the Statutes and this Membership Policy. The Board may consult the Statutory Affairs Committee for this purpose.

[5] Each football club will be informed by the EFC Administration about their membership status during the next EFC Cycle.

[6] The following rules will be taken into account for renewal and transition of membership one EFC Cycle to the next:

- The membership of Members which are not in breach of Article 3.4 of the Statutes shall, in principle, remain as Members in the next EFC Cycle, with their membership to be extended automatically and their membership category to be confirmed (whether this is changing or not) in writing.

[7] In any of the above cases, membership may nonetheless be refused for the next EFC Cycle if the concerned

Member does not fulfil the conditions provided for under the EFC Statutes and this EFC Membership Policy to be an Ordinary or an Associated Member (as applicable) and/or has failed to comply with its obligations under the EFC Statutes or acted contrary to EFC's objectives as established in the EFC Statutes.

[8] Members may be required to re-sign the application form if deemed appropriate by the Board.

Admission of New Members

[9] If it appears that a football club is eligible for EFC ordinary membership in accordance with the Statutes, but is not yet a Member, the EFC Administration shall invite this football club to apply for ordinary membership. These applications shall be decided, in principle, at the last Board meeting of any given season in an EFC Cycle. The only exceptions to this rule are:

c. Where a non-member football club has won at least five UEFA club competition trophies, it would be admitted as an Ordinary Member at the next Board meeting; and
d. Where a replacement Ordinary Member(s) is required under Article 5 of the EFC Statutes.

[10] If it appears that a football club is eligible for EFC associated membership in accordance with the Statutes, but is not yet a Member, the EFC Administration shall invite this football club to apply for associated membership. Associated membership applications may be admitted during the EFC Cycle, subject to subsequent ratification by the Board.

[11] Pursuant to Article 6.3 of the EFC Statutes, the Board may, exceptionally, admit a football club as an Associated Member if, despite not meeting the eligibility criteria set out in the EFC Statutes, it considers that the football club can make a meaningful contribution to the EFC's objectives.

[12] Subject to the EFC Statutes, a former Member that has lost its Membership pursuant to Article 5 or 6bis of the EFC Statutes, or which has been expelled from EFC according to Article 11.2 of the EFC Statutes, may re-apply for membership, provided that it meets the applicable eligibility criteria at the time of its application and that any sanction or measure giving rise to its expulsion has expired or otherwise ceased to apply. Any such application shall be assessed in accordance with the EFC Statutes and this Membership Policy and shall remain subject to acceptance by the Board.

EFC Statutory Affairs Committee

[13] With reference to Article 24 of the EFC Organisational Regulations, the Statutory Affairs Committee may assess applications for EFC membership, review issues relating to the eligibility of Members or candidate Members and deal with issues related to the EFC membership. The Board will decide on any recommendations made by the Statutory Affairs Committee.

[14] Any situation not foreseen in the EFC Statutes or in this Membership Policy and/or any discrepancy between the EFC Statutes and this Membership Policy shall be reviewed by the Statutory Affairs Committee on a case-by-case basis, which may issue a recommendation to the Board.
