

31 May 2021

To all airline customers of Sydney Airport Corporation Limited at Sydney (Kingsford Smith) Airport

Variation of Charges from 1 July 2021

Notice issued under clause 8 of the Sydney Airport Conditions of Use

This notice advises airlines of changes to charges to take effect from 1 July 2021. The changes are incorporated in Schedule 5 of the new version of the Sydney Airport Conditions of Use, Version 3.1, dated 1 July 2021 ("Conditions of Use") and any Sydney Airport Conditions of Use signed by Sydney Airport users.

Security Charges from 1 July 2021

Security costs are recovered on a 'cost pass through basis' and the following security charges will apply from 1 July 2021:

- The International Terminal Security Charge applicable to International passengers will be maintained at $25.52 per passenger (excluding GST);
- The Airfield Security Charge applicable to International passengers will be maintained at $2.09 per passenger (excluding GST); and
- The Airfield Security Charge applicable to aircraft movements where no passenger charge is payable will be maintained at $0.34 per tonne (excluding GST) per aircraft movement based on maximum take-off weight (MTOW).

As varied under clause 8 of the Conditions of Use, from 1 July 2021:

- The Terminal 2 Domestic Passenger Security Charge (covering passenger and checked bag screening will be maintained at $2.53 per domestic T2 passenger (excluding GST)¹;
- The Airfield Security Charge applicable to Domestic passengers will be maintained at $0.17 per passenger (excluding GST); and
- A charge of $0.87 (excluding GST) per Embarking Passenger and Disembarking Passenger (excluding infants and Positioning Crew) on a Regional service will be maintained.¹

Sydney Airport has not yet published the 2H21 domestic security charges due to the commencement of the Federal Government's Domestic Airports Security Costs Support Scheme. Sydney Airport will be undertaking a security price consultation for 2H21 closer to the expiry of the scheme.

Please note that some security costs are not recoverable from the Government and Sydney Airport will continue to invoice airlines for these costs. Also note that the Airfield security costs are not covered by the scheme and will continue to be invoiced at the rate specified above.

Charges for Necessary New Investment (NNI) from 1 July 2021

To reflect the costs of new investment works, from 1 July 2021:

- The Passenger Charge – International Services will increase by $0.40 to $60.42 per passenger (excluding GST) and $66.46 (including GST).
- The Passenger-based Runway Charge – Domestic Services will increase by $0.20 to $5.56 per passenger (excluding GST) and $6.12 (including GST) to reflect the costs of new investment works.
- The Runway Charge applicable to non-passenger services (freight) will increase by $0.22 to $9.57 per tonne (excluding GST) per aircraft movement based on maximum take-off weight (MTOW) and $10.53 (including GST) to reflect the costs of new investment works.
- The Runway Charge applicable to non-passenger services (including positioning flights and general aviation operations) will increase by $0.22 to $6.81 per tonne (excluding GST) per aircraft movement based on maximum take-off weight (MTOW) and $7.49 (including GST) to reflect the costs of new investment works.

These revised charges are in addition to any applicable charges already set out in Schedule 5 to the Conditions of Use or agreed separately with airlines, which are not affected by this notification. Minimum charges continue to apply as specified in Schedule 5.

New Investment Works

In accordance with the Conditions of Use and airline agreements, airlines have been consulted regarding variations to aeronautical charges to reflect the costs of new investment projects. Aeronautical Capital Investment Consultative Group (ACICG) documentation is available upon request. Charges for completed projects are incorporated into user charges from 1 July 2021.
