Sydney Airport Media Guidelines

Sydney Airport is responsible for the operation of the T1 International, T2 and T3 Domestic terminals.

We have a close, daily working relationship with news crews and journalists and request that media adhere to these guidelines when visiting Sydney Airport:

- Media must comply with requests from airport or airline staff and avoid impeding passengers or visitors in the terminals.
- News crews and journalists must provide notice prior to coming to the airport. You can do this by emailing media@syd.com.au or calling the on-call media line on 0437 033 479.
- No filming or photography is permitted at security screening points.
- News crews and non-travelling journalists are not permitted in airside locations of the terminals (i.e. beyond security) without prior permission.
- Requests to film check-in counters, airline branding and interview staff or passengers should be made in the first instance to the relevant airline. If the airline's consent is not obtained, permission from Sydney Airport to film will not be granted.

Media parking

Sydney Airport has dedicated media parking on Departures Road at T1 International and on Vickers Avenue (located on arrivals level) next to the T2 Domestic terminal.

Please note these spaces are not to be used for overnight parking and should not be used to drop-off or collect passengers. To park in these locations, you must ensure that your vehicle is clearly marked with your media outlet (either on the exterior or the dashboard).

T1 International

Media parking is located on the right-hand side of Departures Road after the elevated ramp, approximately 100 metres prior to the terminal. There are signs to mark the available parking spaces.

T2/T3 Domestic

Media parking is located on Vickers Avenue which is on the left off Keith Smith Avenue, immediately prior to the T2 Domestic Terminal. There are signs to mark the available parking spaces.
