

27 November 2020

To all airline customers of Sydney Airport Corporation Limited at Sydney (Kingsford Smith) Airport

Variation of Charges from 1 January 2021

Notice issued under clause 8 of the Sydney Airport Conditions of Use

This notice advises airlines of changes to charges to take effect from 1 January 2021. The changes are incorporated in Schedule 5 of the new version of the Sydney Airport Conditions of Use, Version 2.42, dated 1 January 2021 ("Conditions of Use") and any Sydney Airport Conditions of Use signed by Sydney Airport users.

From 1 January 2021:

- The Passenger Charge – International Services will increase by $23.52 to $60.02 per passenger (excluding GST) and $66.02. (including GST).
- The Passenger-based Runway Charge – Domestic Services will remain unchanged at $5.36 per passenger (excluding GST) and $5.90 (including GST). The charge will remain unchanged due to rounding.
- The Runway Charge applicable to non-passenger services (including freight and general aviation operations) will remain unchanged at $6.59 per tonne (excluding GST) per aircraft movement based on maximum take-off weight (MTOW) and $7.25 (including GST) to reflect the costs of new investment works.¹
- The Shared Airfield Security charge applicable to Domestic passenger service runway movements will increase by $0.04 to $0.17 per passenger (excluding GST) and $0.19 (including GST).
- The Shared Airfield Security charge applicable to non-passenger services (including freight and general aviation operations) will increase by $0.10 to $0.34 per tonne (excluding GST) per aircraft movement based on maximum take-off weight (MTOW) and $0.37 (including GST).
- The Terminal 2 Domestic Passenger Security Charge (covering passenger and checked bag screening) will increase by $1.04 to $2.53 per domestic T2 passenger (excluding GST) and $2.78 (including GST).

While SYD would ordinarily undertake an annual consultation and true-up with respect to security charges, SYD will conduct a mid-year review of security charges in April 2021 to be effective 1 July 2021. This will minimise risk for all parties and ensure that the security charges in 1H21 and 2H21 best reflect actual passenger volumes and actual costs.

SYD Classification: Confidential

These revised charges are in addition to any applicable charges already set out in Schedule 5 to the Conditions of Use or agreed separately with airlines, which are not affected by this notification. Minimum charges continue to apply as specified in Schedule 5.

New Investment Works

In accordance with the Conditions of Use and airline agreements, airlines have been consulted regarding variations to aeronautical charges to reflect the costs of new investment projects. However, due to the disruption to operations from the pandemic, SYD has determined not to adjust pricing in the short term for new investment works over the period 1 July 2020 to 31 December 2020. SYD, however, will look to recover investment in these works in future periods through this or an updated process.

Commencement of Revised Charges

The attached revised Schedule 5 (Version 2.42) of our Conditions of Use is to be taken as the schedule of charges for use of Sydney Airport facilities and services from and including 1 January 2021, unless otherwise specified in commercial agreements between airlines and Sydney Airport.

Schedule 5 (Version 2.42) of the Conditions of Use, together with this notice, represents the official statement of charges. Enclosed is a summary table of these charges.

New charges will be invoiced, and are required to be paid, in the same way as other applicable charges set out in Schedule 5 to the Conditions of Use.

If you have any queries in relation to this notice or the application of the new charges, please contact Michael Newbold, Manager Aviation Commercial, telephone (02) 9667 9876, or email Michael.Newbold@syd.com.au.

Yours faithfully
