

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

8 AUGUST 2016

SumoSalad Green Label at Sydney Airport named best in Asia Pacific region

- SumoSalad Green Label awarded Airport Food To Go Offer of the Year – Asia Pacific and Fast Food/Quick Service Restaurant (QSR) of the Year – Asia Pacific in the Airport Food & Beverage (FAB) Awards 2016
- Awards acknowledge innovation, excellence and choice in food and beverage offering

SumoSalad Green Label at Sydney Airport's T2 Domestic terminal has been awarded Airport Food To Go Offer of the Year – Asia Pacific and Fast Food/Quick Service Restaurant (QSR) of the Year – Asia Pacific in the 2016 Airport Food & Beverage (FAB) Awards.

The FAB Awards, a partnership between The Moodie Davitt Report and sister title The Foodie Report, are the world's only airport-specific food and beverage awards, reflecting the best in travel-related food and beverage operations worldwide.

SumoSalad Green Label, a partnership between Lagardère Travel Retail and SumoSalad, is situated within Sydney Airport's T2 casual dining precinct, offering passengers, visitors and staff a range of tasty and healthy food options using seasonal produce by local Australian suppliers.

The first to Australia airport offering at Sydney Airport features a unique range of made-to-order salads, breakfast bowls, charcoal meats and wraps, as well as cold pressed juices and coffee by Pablo & Rusty.

"We congratulate Lagardère Travel Retail and SumoSalad on winning this award and we are delighted to see it recognised on the global stage for its innovative dining concept at Sydney Airport," Sydney Airport General Manager Retail Glyn Williams said.

"As Australia's gateway, Sydney Airport has invested substantially in improving the airport food and beverage offering, creating new food experiences including Australian and airport firsts, and further enhancing value and choice."

Sydney Airport was also shortlisted in the Airport Food Court of the Year category for its T1 International terminal casual dining precinct, while Lorna Jane in the airport's T2 Domestic terminal was shortlisted in the Food & Beverage-Related Innovation of the Year category for its unique Lorna Jane Active Living Room concept.

ABOUT SYDNEY AIRPORT

Sydney Airport is Australia's gateway airport, serving over 40 million passengers a year and connecting Sydney to a network of 95 international, domestic and regional destinations.

Located just eight kilometres from the city centre, Sydney Airport contributes $30.8 billion in economic activity a year, equivalent to 6.4 per cent of the NSW economy. Sydney Airport is a major employer in NSW, generating more than 306,700 direct and indirect jobs, equivalent to 8.9 per cent of NSW employment. Some 29,000 of these jobs are at the airport itself.

Sydney Airport
Fiona Wood
Communications Manager, Retail
(02) 9667 6167 or 0450 965 395