Accelerate Innovation and Extend Your Platform

Driving new ideas and innovation in your company can be a challenge. With so many insurtech startups and hyped technologies, it isn't always clear which solutions will add real value to your core system and operations. On top of that, resources for lengthy integration projects are scarce and hard to justify, making a "test and learn" approach to innovation nearly impossible. But for users of Guidewire, there's the Guidewire Marketplace—a collection of more than 180 prebuilt, validated, and trusted apps and content for the Guidewire platform. From established players to insurtechs, the Marketplace gives you access to the most comprehensive and innovative set of solutions to extend the capabilities of your platform and drive your business forward.

"We decided to work with FRISS because we recognized they could give us great value in our claims management process. Furthermore, the Guidewire accelerator is easily and quickly downloaded and implemented."
