Faith, the bridge from pain to hope

Preached by: Jose Izarra

Faith isn't something theoretical, you know? It's not a state of mind where we repeat truths that spin around in our heads. It's a way of living, a loyalty to Jesus; and it's the bridge that carries us from suffering to comfort.

"God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble" — Psalm 46:1 (NIV)

Look closely at what the psalm says: "an ever-present help in trouble." It doesn't say a "quick help." It doesn't say the one "who keeps your suffering away." The anguish will be there, the suffering will be there. But God offers himself as a refuge right in the middle of it.

"Be still, and know that I am God." The faith we placed in Jesus is that bridge, the one that carries us through the pain until we reach hope.
