

ESSEC Business School invites applications for a full-time faculty position at the Associate/Full Professor level

The Department of Economics of ESSEC Business School invites applications for a full-time Associate/Full Professor position in its Singapore campus, in the fields of Development/International Economics, with an effective start date of September 2024.

The successful candidate will have a Ph.D. in Economics, a demonstrated ability to publish high-impact economics research in top-tier journals, and a strong teaching record. Candidates are expected to be able to teach at both the graduate and undergraduate levels and in executive education.

ESSEC is a leading European business school with campuses in the Paris metropolitan area, in Singapore, and in Rabat. It offers mostly graduate level education (including a Ph.D. program in Economics). Financial Times ranks ESSEC's "Grande Ecole" program 5th best Master in Management worldwide in 2023.

Candidates should upload their applications (including a cover letter, a resume, and up to three selected research papers, in PDF format) on the AEA JOE Network www.aeaweb.org/joe before November 30th, 2023. They should also arrange for three letters of recommendation to be uploaded on the same website. Short listed candidates will be interviewed (online) in early January. For questions, please send an e-mail to jamuslim@essec.edu with the subject line Associate/ Full Professor Position.
