

The Department of Economics of ESSEC Business School invites applications for a full-time Assistant/Associate/Full Professor position in its Paris campus, in the field of Environmental Economics, starting September 2024. We are particularly interested in candidates whose research connects to areas of sustainability and policies addressing climate change.

ESSEC is a leading European business school with campuses in the Paris metropolitan area, in Singapore, and in Rabat. It offers mostly graduate level education (including a Ph.D. program in Economics).

English is the working language in the department. Knowledge of French is not required.

Applicants should upload their applications (including a cover letter, a resume, and up to three research papers, in PDF format) on the Econjobmarket platform <https://econjobmarket.org/> before November 17th, 2023. They should also arrange for three letters of recommendation to be uploaded on the same website. Short-listed candidates will be interviewed (online) mid-December on the European job market. For questions, please send an e-mail to charlety@essec.edu with the subject line Environmental Economics Professor Position.
