

Mein Schiff

Cruise Overview

Timeless Canary Islands
from Sun, 25.10. to Sat, 14.11.

Dear guests,

My crew and I would like to warmly welcome you on board Mein Schiff 3. I hope you had a pleasant journey and are looking forward to the cruise ahead. Today, it is finally time to set sail: look forward to a variety of fascinating ports and an exciting time on board.

Old captains' houses, the fresh Baltic Sea air and fishing villages – as a native of the Fischland region, seafaring culture has been part of my life from the very beginning. At the age of 16, I went to sea for the first time, working as a dishwasher on the state yacht, before training as a hotel chef. But the sea never let me go. I served in both German navies and, after studying in Warnemünde, spent many years working aboard cargo and research vessels. I have been sailing as a captain with the Mein Schiff® fleet since August 2020, and I am proud to welcome you aboard Mein Schiff 3 today.

Yours
Jan Fritz Schubert
Captain of Mein Schiff 3

This program provides a quick overview of your cruise.
Under “My Cruises” in the Mein Schiff® app you can find all activities, opening times and reservation options for each day.

Mandatory safety instructions

In accordance with international regulations, we will be holding a safety briefing before we set sail today to familiarise you with the emergency equipment and procedures on board. This procedure is mandatory for all new guests. Information about your muster station can be found on your boarding pass and on the inside of your cabin door. For your safety on board, please also watch the safety film on Channel 1 of your cabin TV. All newly arrived guests: please go to your muster station between 02:00 p.m. and 04:00 p.m. where you will receive a short safety briefing. Actively ask the crew to repeat the briefing in English.

Welcome

Dear Guests,

I would like to extend a warm welcome to all of you aboard Mein Schiff 3 and hope you had a pleasant journey here. The moment has finally arrived: your voyage with us can begin. At last, we're heading out to sea again – I'm sure you're just as excited about it as we are. Our beautiful ship and its wonderful crew will enchant you just as much as the ports of call we've selected for you on this voyage.

Yours

Sonja Karas
Cruise Director Mein Schiff 3
