SOMA DERM + AWE

Q&A

Q: What is SomaDerm + AWE?

A: SomaDerm + AWE is our innovative wellness solution that combines the hormone-balancing power of SomaDerm with natural botanicals known for their soothing properties. This unique formula brings together SomaDerm with calming ingredients like Copaiba, Arnica Montana, Willow Bark, Eucalyptus Oil, and Peppermint Oil. Think of it as whole-body support that works both at the surface and deep within.

Whether you're looking for daily support or occasional comfort, SomaDerm + AWE delivers quick results that last. It's the perfect companion to your wellness journey!

Q: What can SomaDerm + AWE do for me?

A: SomaDerm + AWE's natural ingredients work together to support your wellness in multiple ways:

Daily Comfort & Balance:

- Helps ease discomfort where you need it most
- Supports natural inflammatory response
- Promotes clearer thinking and better focus
- Helps manage everyday stress
- Supports relaxation and mood balance

Hormone Health Benefits:

- Supports quality sleep
- Promotes healthy bones and joints
- Helps maintain lean muscle while reducing fat
- Supports natural vitality
- Promotes overall hormone balance

Q: How is SomaDerm + AWE different from regular SomaDerm?

A: While SomaDerm focuses on supporting your overall hormone health through natural HGH production, SomaDerm + AWE takes your wellness support a step further. It combines the hormone-balancing benefits you love from SomaDerm with additional botanical ingredients that provide comfort and support exactly where you need it.

Think of SomaDerm as your foundation for overall wellness, and SomaDerm + AWE as your targeted solution that works both on immediate comfort and long-term balance. As more people discover the benefits of natural solutions like SomaDerm, we created SomaDerm + AWE to provide an even more comprehensive approach to feeling your best every day.

Q: How do I use SomaDerm + AWE?

A: Using SomaDerm + AWE is simple! Apply 1-2 pumps directly to the areas where you want support, as often as needed throughout your day. For best results, use it alongside your regular SomaDerm routine.

Q: Can I use SomaDerm + AWE with other New U Life products?

A: Absolutely! All our products are designed to work together beautifully. In fact, many of our key ingredients create even better results when used together — something we've seen supported by science.

Q: What's the best time to use SomaDerm + AWE?

A: You can use SomaDerm + AWE whenever you need it! Apply 1-2 pumps to desired areas at any time during the day. For maximum benefits, use it along with your regular SomaDerm routine.

SOMA DERM + AWE

Q&A

Q: Who Should Not Use SomaDerm+ AWE?

A: SomaDerm+ AWE is not recommended for use in pregnant or nursing mothers and children under the age of 18. Anyone with significant health considerations should consult their healthcare provider before beginning their SomaDerm+ AWE journey. As with any change in your wellness routine, we encourage open dialogue with your healthcare provider to ensure the best path forward for your individual needs.

Q: Can I use both SomaDerm and SomaDerm + AWE together?

A: Yes, absolutely! In fact, we designed them to work as perfect companions. Using both products together helps support your overall hormone balance while providing targeted comfort where you need it most.

Q: How often can I use SomaDerm + AWE? Is it possible to use too much?

A: Feel confident using SomaDerm + AWE as often as you need it. Apply 1-2 pumps to desired areas whenever you're looking for support. Thanks to our advanced formula, you don't have to worry about overuse – your body naturally knows how to work with the ingredients, even with frequent application.

Q: How does SomaDerm + AWE complement regular SomaDerm?

A: Think of these products as partners in your wellness journey:

- SomaDerm works throughout your body to support natural hormone balance and HGH production
- SomaDerm + AWE provides additional support for comfort and balance, working both systemically and wherever you need targeted care

Together, they create a comprehensive approach to helping you feel your best every day.
