

SOMANIGHT™

WITH SOMATECH™

Revolutionize Your Recovery

Aging begins with hormone health and hormone health begins with your sleep. SomaNight helps you capitalize on your crucial recovery time while you sleep! This SomaTech® powered blend is designed to be different though:

- | IGF-1 and HGH Utilization Support
- | Serotonin & Melatonin Support
- | Rest and Recovery Matrix
- | Tri-Collagen Peptide blend from three natural sources

These exclusive ingredient blends promote healthy insulin-like growth factor 1 (IGF-1) production and help optimize human growth hormone (HGH) utilization. What does that mean for you? Simply put, better rest, better recovery, and better hormone health that empowers you to rise to meet the demands of your day! While you rest, SomaTech ingredients go to work to support your natural restorative processes and rejuvenate your body. During these hours, hormones are most effectively produced and balanced so that key cellular recovery processes can take place. This results in comprehensive full-body revitalization. Optimal youth preservation and vitality are just a few convenient, tasty sips away!

How Does SomaNight work?

SomaNight is where science meets beauty and function. This fortified blend targets 3 main areas to support your youthful look, feel, and function.

- | IGF-1 synthesis and HGH utilization
- | Support for various tissues throughout the body.
- | Restful sleep and recovery

Leveraging the power of your hormones through SomaTech ingredients, SomaNight helps to promote healthy IGF-1 production and HGH utilization as the key factors in the way your cells replicate and how they repair. Healthy IGF-1 production and HGH utilization are directly linked to overall recovery, resulting in improved well-being, endurance, energy levels, and youthful vitality.

Our FCM4™ Tri-Collagen Peptide Matrix blend, powered by patented micro-encapsulation technology for greater absorption, features three sources of clinically effective collagen. This full spectrum collagen blend is key for collagen production and collagen retention resulting in optimal tissue repair including hair, nails, skin, joints, and connective tissues. And the beauty about it? This innovative blend transforms the way your body recovers while you sleep.

The Rest and Recovery Matrix supports your body's natural production of Serotonin and Melatonin in addition to other restful sleep promoting ingredients. Optimal Rest = Optimal Recovery.

Benefits of SomaNight

Enriched with the calming properties of Passionfruit extract and GABA, this exceptional elixir promotes a deep, restorative slumber, reducing the time it takes to fall asleep.
