

You're invited to sign a petition on the way out of Mass about the debt crisis affecting many of the world's poorest countries. Money is flowing out of countries that can least afford it to pay huge debts to wealthy banks and hedge funds. 34 African countries allocate more money to servicing debts than to health or education.

Countries have often paid back the debt several times over but will never clear it because of extortionate interest rates. Cardinal Stephen Ameyu Martin Mulla from South Sudan says, "Years of instability forced our nation to borrow in order to function. Today, so much of our national resources are diverted to servicing that debt, instead of paying for healthcare, education and building peace. When debt repayment takes priority over essential services, the poorest suffer most."

Please sign the petition at the back of church calling for the UK government to take urgent action on this crisis, as they are well placed to do. Or sign online if you prefer by scanning this QR code – thank you. Read more at cafod.org.uk/cancelthedebt
