

Good Friday. Jesus dies on the cross to save everyone. We remember today how much God loves the world. What can you do today for someone else to show your love for them?

