

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Gospel: John 14:15-21

Jesus tells the disciples that if they love him they will obey his commandments. We are all called to love God and one another.

How will you show your love for your global neighbours?

Write or draw in the heart below all the people who you love. Think about how you will show your love for them this week.

