When one person has a right, others have a responsibility to uphold that right.

Set no.

Whatever is needed for each and every person, and creation, to flourish.

Set no.

Not just doing things for other people but acting with them to build a more just world together.

Set no.

As far as possible, decisions should not be taken at the highest levels, but by the people who are most affected.

Set no.

To choose to consider the needs of the poorest and most vulnerable people first.

Set no.

People have a right and a duty to take part in shaping a more just and human society.

Set no.

We are called to care for creation as stewards, not just as consumers.

Set no.

Every human being has in-built dignity because she or he has been created in the image and likeness of God.

Set no.

“All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need.”
