Lion King -Play Review

.../10 points

A.

Great show ! The theatre was one of the best we have been to. The performance was perfect, and the costumes were great -I loved the giraffes!. Unfortunately, people kept on arriving 10-30 minutes after the performance had started, and the staff were showing them to their seats. We were very angry about that! Also, the noise made by people eating their snacks during the performance was very annoying. Despite that, we enjoyed the show. I have to say this theatre is one of the best as the seats have plenty of legroom, but it's a good idea to take a cushion with you as we found the seats very hard - especially when you are sitting for over two hours!

Such a shame! I have many good memories of going to see The Lion King at the cinema with my family, so I decided to see the play too . I was so excited because I had waited for four months to get tickets. Finally the day came, and I was on my way to see it! But it was nothing like the film. The film was full of colour, energy and passion but the play was completely different. It seemed to have no life in it! The actors looked exhausted and bored, and some of them even forgot their lines and couldn't remember what to say next. I was so disappointed ! I would not recommend the show to anyone, and I think there are better theatre shows which will give you a better experience.

I paid for my family of 5 to see the Lion King for my daughter's 21st birthday. Unfortunately on that day they decided to close the roads for a bike race. We had no way of getting to the theatre as the road was completely blocked. My daughter and one of my sons got out of the car and walked all the way to the theatre. They were late and only arrived for the second half of the show. When we finally got to the theatre, when they opened the road again, we were told that the show would end in ten minutes. I can't really say much about the show but they should have warned us that the road would close. Of course, we never got our money back, and the tickets were not cheap.

Alone at sea

On 29 January 1982, Steven Callahan left the Canary Islands in a small yacht. But a week later, during an awful storm, something -probably a whale- hit the yacht and made a huge hole in it. Water was coming in and the boat was sinking fast. He had to do something quickly!

Steven got into an inflatable life boat and just had time to get a sleeping bag, a first-aid kit, some food, maps, and a torch from the yacht before it sank. He also managed to get a copy of a book called Sea Survival, which contained lots of useful information about surviving at sea. Unfortunately, he couldn't rescue the radio from the yacht.

Alone in the life boat, Steven travelled slowly across the Atlantic Ocean. His food ran out after a few days so he had to survive by catching sea-birds, fish and flying fish. He drank rain water which he caught in the boat. After about two months at sea, Steven was 3,000 km from the place where the yacht sank.

During this time, Steven saw nine ships. But unfortunately, they didn't see him. He was beginning to think that he might not survive. He was starving, exhausted, weak and very thin.

Finally, after 76 days, some fishermen saw the sea-birds that were flying around the boat and took Steven to the island of Guadeloupe. After his terrifying experience, he was finally in the Caribbean!
