

PUBERTY PROGRAMS FOR EXCEPTIONAL INDIVIDUALS

PROGRAM REGISTRATION

These programs are designed for students living with Autism, Down Syndrome, learning disabilities and developmental delays.

- Are you the parent of a child living with a complex learning need?
 - Does the word "Puberty" strike fear in your heart?
- Not sure how to explain physical changes, hormones, why your son or daughter must shower?
 - Do you have a daughter, and you need to explain the monthly cycle soon?

You're not alone.

Byrnes Health Education is here to help. The programs will contain biological, social, and behavioral components about puberty. All programs will be taught by experienced Health Educators and will be presented to males and females separately.
