Byrnes Health Education Center Campus
515 S. George Street, York PA

6:00PM – 7:30PM

$15 per person attending

This health education event is for dads (grandfathers, uncles, male guardians, etc.) and their sons (grandsons, nephews, etc.).

The program creates an open environment to learn about puberty and the natural changes that occur during adolescence.

Subject matter includes stages of human development, the major events of puberty and reproductive system basics.

The topic is discussed in a simple way with a comforting atmosphere, led by an exceptionally qualified Byrnes Health Education Center health educator. All of which reduces conversation barriers and creates a positive learning and growth experience for all participants.
