

DAVID HARRIS BIOS

DAVID HARRIS – FULL BIO

David Harris is a nationally touring, Midwest Emmy Award-winning comedian and actor who has entertained audiences for over 30 years. Harris regularly appears at top clubs, colleges, corporate events, theaters, alternative rooms and other elite venues across the U.S. and Canada. Most notably, Harris has performed at the New York Comedy Club in New York, Rick Bronson's House of Comedy at the Mall of America in Minneapolis, the Grand Sierra Resort in Reno, Goodnight's Comedy Club in Raleigh, and at the Hollywood Improv Lab in Los Angeles. Harris has also worked with the legendary Louie Anderson, Cathy Ladman, Bobby Slayton, Beth Stelling, Amir K., Mary Lynn Rajskub, Ben Bailey, and Judy Gold, to name a few. David's comedy special "Recalculating" is available on Dry Bar Comedy – one of the world's top clean comedy sites.

In 2017, in his hometown of Minneapolis, Harris won Minnesota's Funniest Person Contest. He was asked by his peers to participate in Minnesota's own, highly competitive 10,000 Laughs Festival two years in a row and received resounding praise from audiences and press alike. He was even invited back once again in 2023. In the last few years, he also participated in the Colorado Springs Comedy Festival, the Fargo Comedy Festival, and the Loons on the Lake Comedy Festival. His personal approach to the topics of work, family, relationships, and anxiety makes his act relatable to virtually anyone. Harris is fun, relatable, creative, interactive, and most of all – hilarious.

On screen, David has scored rave reviews from local ABC, CBS, FOX, and NBC TV affiliates. In 2006, he won two regional Emmys for his sketch television show, "Nate on Drums," which aired on Minneapolis' ABC sister station, KSTC. Harris has since starred in several online award-winning videos and TV commercials, including recent spots for Robert Half and Pancho's Mexican Grill. He recently produced and hosted a cutting-edge variety and talk show entitled, "Vaudeville Remix" for three seasons. That show featured some of the best acts in the region with its final season taking place at the Brave New Workshop ETC Theatre in downtown Minneapolis. The Twin Cities alt newspaper, CityPages, called it "Consistently Entertaining."

In 2021, Harris debuted his first comedy special, "Recalculating," on Dry Bar Comedy – one of the world's top clean comedy sites. With over 230,000 clip views thus far, the special has received strong praise including a recommendation from Minnesota Public Radio's "Art Hounds." In short, David is a born entertainer who is sure to please.

DAVID HARRIS – SHORT BIO

David Harris is a nationally touring, Midwest Emmy Award-winning comedian and actor who has entertained audiences for over 30 years. Harris regularly appears at top clubs, colleges, corporate events, theaters, alternative rooms and other elite venues across the U.S. and Canada. Most notably, Harris has performed at the New York Comedy Club in New York, Rick Bronson's House of Comedy at the Mall of America in Minneapolis, the Grand Sierra Resort in Reno, Goodnight's Comedy Club in Raleigh, and at the Hollywood Improv Lab in Los Angeles. Harris has also worked with the legendary Louie Anderson, Cathy Ladman, Bobby Slayton, Beth Stelling, Amir K., Mary Lynn Rajskub, Ben Bailey, and Judy Gold, to name a few. David's comedy special “Recalculating” is available on Dry Bar Comedy – one of the world’s top clean comedy sites.

DAVID HARRIS BIO – SUPER SHORT

David Harris is a nationally touring, Midwest Emmy Award winning comedian and actor who has entertained North American audiences for over 30 years with 3000+ live performances. Harris regularly appears at clubs, colleges, corporate events, theaters, alternative rooms and other top venues across the U.S. and Canada. David’s comedy special “Recalculating” is available on Dry Bar Comedy – one of the world’s top clean comedy sites. Don’t miss your chance to see Harris with his crazy-fun personality and solid, relatable jokes.

DAVID HARRIS – BULLETED BIO

- Winner of Two Midwest Emmys
- Star of own Dry Bar Comedy Special
- Performs at Top Clubs and Events across U.S.