

Casual autumn days with Street One MEN

Kirchhorst, 6 August 2024. Autumn is just around the corner and Street One MEN has plenty of casual looks waiting in the wings. With stylish overshirts, smart blazers, cosy sweaters and cool jackets, collections 09 and 10 are serving up a whole host of new styles for every occasion.

When the temperatures gradually start to drop in September, warm and cosy options are a must. Whether knitwear, sweatshirts or jackets, the pieces from collection 09 will get you through the autumn months in style. A particular highlight is the elegant overshirts and blazers in hues such as 'Cosy Beige' and 'Heavy Grey'. Wear them as part of a sporty look with a sweatshirt underneath or a shirt for special occasions. This makes them the perfect all-rounders for the upcoming autumn season.

Collection 10 stands out with warm sweaters and jackets in colour tones including 'Real Red' and 'Infinite Blue'. These colours really look the part on knitwear items and sweat jackets. Also perfect for the autumn months are layered looks: they offer a multitude of styling options, are warm and cosy and give you a laid-back look. As you can see, the new October collection has something for everyone.

Delivery of collection 09 will begin in mid-August, with collection 10 following in mid-September. The items are available online at www.street-one.de.

About Street One MEN:

Street One MEN stands for a casual, masculine look in premium quality. We understand that modern men are looking for an appealing and contemporary style that is both comfortable and casual. Our collections include carefully selected garments that are in line with the latest trends while meeting the highest quality standards: from high-quality materials to precise workmanship.

About CBR Fashion Group:

The CBR Fashion Group is an international fashion company with a long history of success. Our brands represent different styles, but they have one thing in common: the belief that fashion is not just made for one season, but should be worn for years to come. We are dedicated to the pursuit of excellence in every way. From the selection of high-quality materials to the workmanship, we place the utmost importance on quality and attention to detail to ensure the longevity of our products. We see this as a decisive contribution to greater sustainability.

Many customers have been loyal to our brands for years. We are grateful for this. At the same time, it spurs us on to design attractive products for them anew with each collection. Thanks to our proximity to the market and our experience, we have a clear idea of their preferences, wishes and expectations. This enables our design teams to translate current fashion trends into relevant items for our customers.
