This Chicago Clearing Corporation: Opt-In / Opt-Out Form is in effect until revoked in writing by all signors.

Since 2009, SPC Financial, Inc. (SPC) has arranged with Chicago Clearing Corporation (CCC) to provide a class action litigation claims service for our clients. CCC presently monitors over 150 securities class action websites and news sources, over 1500 cases in the court system, and over 700 settlements. SPC provides data to CCC semi-annually consisting of our clients' securities trades and account information executed at Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. (RJFS) to enable CCC to identify qualifying trades which CCC uses in filing proof of claims on behalf of our clients. CCC's contingency fee for monitoring class actions and filing claims is twenty percent (20%) of the settlement amount recovered for a client. CCC is authorized to gather documentation necessary to file accurate claims, accept settlement payments from the Claims Administrator, and deduct its fee before forwarding the balance of the settlement payment to our clients. SPC and/or Sella & Martinic, LLC (S&M) do not pay any fee to CCC. SPC and/or S&M do not receive any payment or compensation from CCC. The services of CCC are independent from, and are not those of, RJFS and its affiliates, SPC or S&M. Securities activity for SPC clients conducted at firms other than RJFS are not monitored by CCC and are not included in this service.

Clients have the right to Opt-In or Opt-Out of the service. For clients living in the states of CA, VT, AK, ME, MA, ND and LA, the default is Opt-Out. To receive the service of CCC, clients must affirmatively check the Opt-In box and return this signed form to SPC. For clients living in all other states, the default is Opt-In. Clients who do not want to participate in this service must affirmatively check the Opt-Out box and return this signed form to SPC.

Investment advisory services offered through SPC. SPC and S&M are not registered broker/dealers and are independent of RJFS.
