

One Voice Collection

Item No.: 38276

Look good and give back with our One Voice™ Collection, which features our all-new One Voice essential oil blend and a beautifully handcrafted stacking diffuser bracelet set. Thirty-five percent of your bracelet purchase goes directly to the Young Living Foundation to champion education, develop enterprise, and end exploitation. Every time you order the One Voice Collection, you're helping to protect the vulnerable from losing their freedoms to human trafficking and helping survivors restore their lives. You're helping to give survivors back their voice.

Around the world, millions of children are trafficked every year, living and working in conditions that strip them of their freedom and humanity. The Young Living Foundation strives to end exploitation by helping to fund initiatives designed to stop trafficking before it begins, educate the public to spot the signs of trafficking, prosecute perpetrators, restore lives, and influence policy reform.

The One Voice essential oil label design was created by a human trafficking survivor who is going through the Hope for Justice Stepping Stones program—a program sponsored by the Young Living Foundation that provides survivors with the life skills they need to live independently and to thrive in the future. This label design celebrates the personal transformation that once-exploited individuals undergo as part of the restorative process: the transformation from victim to survivor; from having no voice to having a unified voice of freedom.

Enjoy the many layers of this aroma as they unfold while reflecting on how you can use your voice for good.

PRODUCT BACKGROUND

The Stacking Diffuser Bracelets were handcrafted with clay and ensigo beads by artisans of the Mabira Collective, a women-led social enterprise in Uganda that provides stable employment, day care, and education opportunities to women. Mabira also provides health care, helps pay for school fees, and gives women the opportunity to learn, grow, and lead.

Eve, one of Mabira's artisans, describes how working at Mabira changed her life for the better: "I have three children who are my world. Before Mabira, I was only able to think about how I could find food for them each day. Now I look to the future and am working to own a home. Because of my hard work, my children have enough to eat and are enjoying going to school."

The Young Living Foundation works with women-led artisan groups across the globe, including artisans who have experienced extreme poverty, disability, displacement, trauma, exploitation, or violence. The Foundation is committed to helping these resilient women build strong and sustainable enterprises that will lead to more income-generating opportunities. With fair and consistent pay, our partner artisans are better able to support their own needs, as well as the needs of their children and families.
