

LUSTRE ARTISAN DIFFUSER

Item No. 32676

The Young Living Lustre™ Artisan Diffuser hails from the Pearl River Delta of China, a haven for artisans, poets, and painters for hundreds of years. Every Lustre glass cover is handcrafted by a master glassblower trained for years in the art of glasswork, making each Lustre diffuser a unique work of art that will illuminate the décor of any home.

The Lustre's gorgeous rounded design creates soft, ethereal light, a luminous sensory companion as the ultrasonic diffusion fills your home with your signature home essential oil scents. Lovingly handcrafted, each artisan diffuser cover is unique, a fitting pairing to the unique décor of your home.

PRODUCT BACKGROUND

Young Living's exclusive Artisan Diffusers are created to be statement pieces in your home, incorporating fluid, natural shapes, and soft, cloud-like hues. Each one comes from the south of China along the Pearl River Delta, from an area known as the "Fragrant Mountain," in reference to the many flowers that grow nearby. This region has been inhabited by craftsmen, poets, and creative thinkers since the Northern Song Dynasty nearly one thousand years ago. Today, the spirit of craftsmanship continues where the Lustre and Lucia Artisan Diffusers are hand-made by master glass blowers, combining traditional practices with modern technology. To reach the status of master glass blower, an apprentice must complete at least two years of intensive training. In this time each artisan is trained to know the molten glass intimately in order to work it into a final masterpiece. Young Living is proud to bring these works of art from master craftsmen to your home.
