ABOUT

Between every shiny, new biohack and the endless research into what actually works, it's easy to feel like aging well requires more: more products, more protocols, and more guesswork. Master Cellular Nutrition was created to bring the support you need into one smarter daily system.*

It supports three core components of healthy aging: healthy cellular function, a normal inflammatory response, and nutrient sufficiency, all in one daily packet—and not just by providing the nutrients your body needs, but by helping you absorb and benefit from them on the cellular level.*

DIRECTIONS

Take 1 packet daily. Best when taken with breakfast or lunch.

CONTENTS

Each daily packet contains:

- 1 multivitamin capsule
- 1 cellular support capsule with Young Living SeneCell™ complex
- 3 bone support tablets

SAFETY

Master Cellular Nutrition™ System

THE SCIENCE BEHIND THE SYSTEM

Modern life is harder on the body than ever before. Even if you're doing all the right things: eating healthy, staying active, and getting enough sleep, over time, something still changes. Energy doesn't bounce back like it used to, recovery takes longer, and stress hits harder.

Your body gradually has to work harder to maintain the same performance.

That's why we handled the science to bring you a simple, curated system that lets you focus on living well. Master Cellular Nutrition combines three complementary formulas into one triple-action system built around science-backed ingredients, not complicated protocols.

Cellular Support

As we age, some cells stop functioning normally. They can linger and contribute to cellular stress. These are commonly called "zombie" cells. Master Cellular Nutrition targets the pathways associated with these zombie cells and helps support routine biological signaling linked to healthy aging.*

Nutrient Safety Net

Modern food processing and soil depletion make it harder than ever to get what your cells need from diet alone. We start with 100 percent or more of the daily value of key vitamins and minerals, in forms your body can actually absorb.*

Structural Support

Strong, healthy bones require not just calcium, but also magnesium, vitamin D3, and vitamin K2. Master Cellular Nutrition provides an optimal balance of all four to support the strength that keeps you living fully.*

THOUGHTFUL SOURCING MEETS ADVANCED CELLULAR NUTRITION

Because you care about how things are made as much as what's in them, Master Cellular Nutrition features:

- DeepSpectra® Frankincense^{2TM} extract from upcycled botanicals†
- High-potency formulation with no artificial colors, preservatives, or stimulants
- Three-phase system designed to simplify your routine and reduce excess packaging
