

What's Child Development Associate® (CDA) ?

CDA is a nationally recognized credential awarded by the Council of Professional Recognition. They ensure educators who earn CDA credentials foster the social, emotional, physical and cognitive growth of young children. To learn more about CDA you can visit their website.

HiMama Academy CDA training

With HiMama Academy completing the required training to earn your CDA credentials is simple! Our research-based courses are relevant, effective and inspiring. Educators can earn continuing education units (CEU) that are aligned to CDAs subject areas all in one place.
