The quote above is determined by our services rendered, bond coverage, value of goods and current duty/tariff rates. The classification advice given by our specialists is based on information provided by you/your sources, ergo, Reasonable Care under the Modernization Act relies on the Importer of Record to perform a complete tariff classification review which may include applying for a US Customs Binding Ruling. The Importer of Record is ultimately responsible for the legal and financial ramifications of importation, including any penalties/fees assessed by US Customs and will be held liable for any personal negligence, false claims or perjury, intentional or not. Borderbuddy USA is not responsible for and assumes no responsibilities for any transportation, warehousing or third party service costs, Customs Duty, penalties, damages, claims and any further actions of any kind whatsoever assessed by US Customs. US customs reserves the right to search any imported ocean, air, or land shipments regardless of formal or informal entry. You may be subject to fee(s) in the event that your goods are selected for random inspection/exam. This quote is not final and subject to change based on Customs discretion, changes of duty and/or new information provided before final liquidation of your import. All values shown are based on US currency (converted to the current USD/CAD exchange rate if originally Canadian denomination).
