Customer hereby authorizes the repair work set forth herein to be performed along with the purchase and furnishing of any and all necessary materials and agrees that Parker Four Wheel Drive & Auto Repair (the “Company”) is not responsible for loss or damage to vehicle listed herein (the “Vehicle”) or articles left in Vehicle in the case of fire, theft, or any other cause beyond the Company’s control. Customer grants the Company and its employees and agents’ permission to operate the Vehicle on streets, highways, or elsewhere for the purpose of testing and/or inspection. An express garage keeper’s lien is hereby acknowledged and attached to the Vehicle to secure the amount of repairs thereto. All vehicles left over 48 hours after repairs are completed WILL INCUR A $25 PER DAY STORAGE FEE. Company provides a 24 MONTH OR 24 THOUSAND (24,000) MILE limited warranty on all repairs stated herein performed by Company. All warranties are limited and will be applied to the Vehicle at the discretion of the Company. Customer agrees that the repair work stated herein has been performed by the Company to the Customer’s satisfaction. If Customer believes that a repair performed as stated herein has faulted, then Customer agrees to the following: (1) Customer must notify Company of the believed fault; (2) Customer must exhaust all means possible to find a mutually agreeable solution through negotiation with the Company; and (3) Customer must permit Company to honor its limited warranty. If the Parties cannot find an agreeable resolution, then the Customer must follow the Company’s Dispute Resolution Process described below. Customer agrees to complete the Dispute Resolution Process before demanding a chargeback. Customer agrees that arbitrary or abusive use of chargeback processes are damaging to the Company and will be considered acts of theft, conversion, and possibly fraud. The Company reserves the right to pursue any frivolous chargebacks along with any damages, including reasonable costs and attorney fees.

Dispute Resolution. If a dispute arises relating to this repair order which is not resolved by the parties, the parties shall first proceed, in good faith, to mediation to try to resolve the dispute informally and confidentially. The parties will jointly appoint an acceptable mediator and will share equally the cost of such mediation. The obligation to mediate, unless otherwise agreed, will terminate if the entire dispute is not resolved within thirty (30) days of the date written notice requesting mediation is delivered by one party to the other at that party’s last known address, either physically or electronically. If the dispute is not resolved through mediation, the matter may then be submitted to binding arbitration in Denver, Colorado by either party upon written notice requesting arbitration delivered by one party to the other at that party’s last known address, either physically or electronically. The arbitration will be conducted by one arbitrator agreed upon by the parties. If the parties are unable to agree to an arbitrator, the arbitration shall be conducted by the Judicial Arbiter Group of Denver, Colorado, before one arbitrator in accordance with the rules of the Judicial Arbiter Group. The arbitrator shall be entitled to include injunctive relief as part of an arbitration award. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its costs, including attorney’s fees and the costs of the arbitrator, in connection with the arbitration and any ensuing judicial relief based on the arbitration award. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties. The decision may be entered in a court located in Denver, Colorado, for judgment on it pursuant to the statutes and rules of procedure of the courts in Colorado.
