

Certificate of Excellence

Gold Award

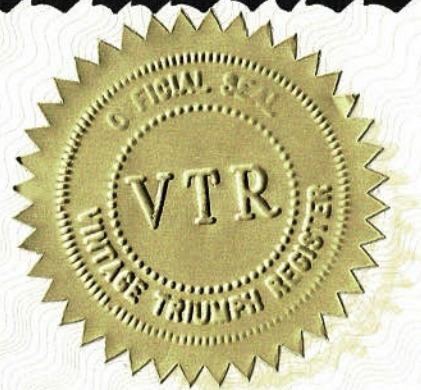

Presented by the Vintage Triumph Register in recognition of outstanding achievement on the Concours d'Elegance field at the regional level. This 1957 Triumph TR3, commission no. TS18419A, registered as car 69 at the 2000 VTR Regional Convention in Richmond, Virginia has been awarded 377 points out of a possible 400 points. Therefore, this motorcar is awarded this certificate of excellence.

John Warfield

John Warfield, Chief Judge

July 15, 2000

Certificate of Excellence

Gold Award

Presented by the Vintage Triumph Register in recognition of superior achievement on the Concours d'Elegance field at the 2003 Vintage Triumph Register National Convention in Armagh Pennsylvania.

For scoring at least three hundred and fifty points out of a possible four hundred points, this motorcar is awarded this Certificate of Excellence.

Darrell Floyd, VTR Chief Judge

August 8, 2003

CERTIFICATE OF EXCELLENCE

GOLD AWARD

PRESENTED BY THE VINTAGE TRIUMPH REGISTER IN RECOGNITION OF OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT
ON THE CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE FIELD AT THE NATIONAL LEVEL. THIS 1957 TRIUMPH TR3, COMMISSION NO, TS18419, REGISTERED AS CAR 59 AT THE 2004 VTR NATIONAL CONVENTION IN RICHMOND, VIRGINIA HAS BEEN AWARDED 384 POINTS OUT OF A POSSIBLE 400 POINTS. THEREFORE, THIS MOTORCAR IS AWARDED THIS CERTIFICATE OF EXCELLENCE.

DARRELL FLOYD, CHIEF JUDGE

JULY 17, 2004

Certificate of Excellence

Gold Award

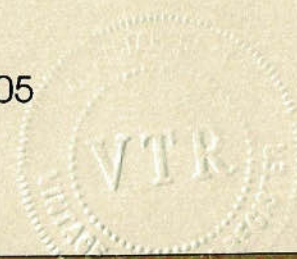

Presented by the Vintage Triumph Register in recognition of superior achievement on the Concours d'Elegance field at the 2005 Vintage Triumph National Convention in Rockford, Illinois.

For scoring at least three hundred and fifty points out of a possible four hundred points, this motorcar is awarded this Certificate of Excellence.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Darrell Floyd'.

Darrell Floyd, VTR Chief Judge

July 29, 2005

Certificate of Excellence

Gold Award

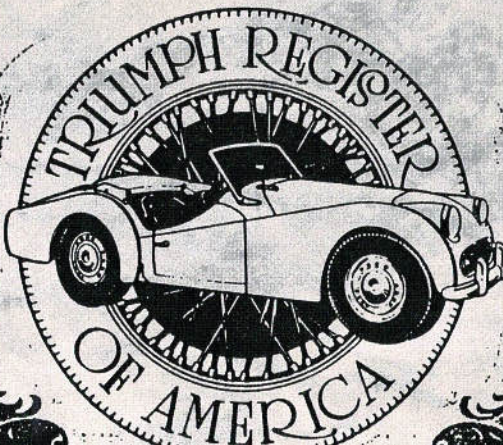

Presented by the Vintage Triumph Register to Al Taylor in recognition of outstanding achievement in the Concours d' Elegance at the national level. This 1957 Triumph TR3 commission number TS18941 registered as car number 85 at the 2007 VTR National Convention in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania has been awarded 388 out of a possible 400 points. Therefore, this motorcar is awarded this Certificate of Excellence.

Darrell Floyd, VTR Chief Judge

July 20, 2007

Certificate

of Award

Al Taylor

1957

TR3

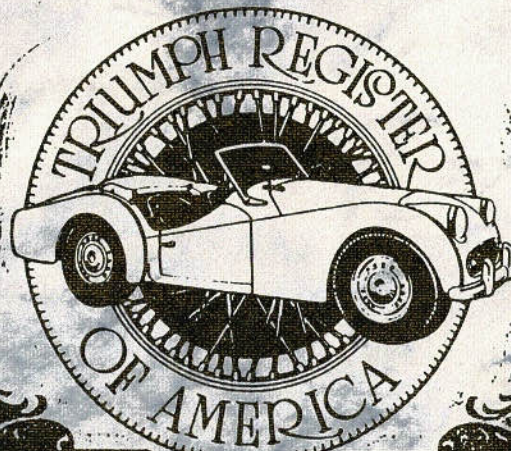

88.73

Having sworn to believe in cut down doors, engines that last forever, and rock solid rain-in-the-lap motoring; Realizing that overheating in traffic is an unchangeable natural phenomenon; Insisting that a person inside an automobile is healthier when they are cold in winter and hot in summer; and having successfully interpreted the Triumph Register of America Concours Guidelines is hereby proclaimed a competent and learned Triumph enthusiast and is awarded this certificate in recognition of their successful participation in the Triumph Register of America Concours D'Elegance.

John R. Gabel
John R. Gabel, Chief Judge

6-18-2002

Certificate

of Award

Al Taylor

1957 TR3

93.55 pts.

Having sworn to believe in cut down doors, engines that last forever, and rock solid rain-in-the-lap motoring; Realizing that overheating in traffic is an unchangeable natural phenomenon; Insisting that a person inside an automobile is healthier when they are cold in winter and hot in summer; and having successfully interpreted the Triumph Register of America Concours Guidelines is hereby proclaimed a competent and learned Triumph enthusiast and is awarded this certificate in recognition of their successful participation in the Triumph Register of America Concours D'Elegance.

John R. Gabel
John R. Gabel, Chief Judge

June 14, 2002