

Covid 19 Relief Pricing Available!

Everything you do today, from now until the day you reopen your practice is going to have an impact on your forward progress upon reopening.

There are actions we can take today that make us better tomorrow as individuals & there are actions we can take today to strengthen our businesses tomorrow.

KEEP YOUR CASH FLOW MOVING!

A lot of us have taken to an early spring cleaning with our stay at home directives. Don't forget to clean the most important part of your practice right now – Your Aging Report.

You might not be producing, but you should still be collecting on the work already completed

Building up your cash reserves now will allow you to hit the ground running in the near future.

Get those outstanding claims collected - Get those insurance payments posted - Be prepared for an all-out scheduling campaign once the order is lifted.

This is how your practice can thrive despite the blow that has been dealt to all Americans.

Dental Support Specialties Is Ready To Help Be Part Of Your Solution!

Our team understands your needs and is ready to mobilize:

- Insurance Aging
- Account Aging
- Biweekly/monthly statements
- Posting payments/checking for additional payments through insurance websites/portals
- Update fee schedules
- Clean up duplicate insurance companies

Make Your Plan Today to keep fully moving into tomorrow!

- Aging Clean Up
- Scheduling Blitz
 - When will you contact patients (tentatively)
 - Who will contact the patients
 - How (and how often) will you contact the patients?
- Team Building
 - A new treatment – there are so many free webinars happening now
 - A new practice system
 - Improve patient communications
 - Improve team communications
- Professional Development
- Run your reports NOW for recare and undone treatment.
 - Thoroughly review each patient, make necessary notes, start template documenting now to be prepared for every patient communication!
 - Have your lists ready for which patients to contact 2 weeks prior to reopening, then weekly thereafter. BE PREPARED to hit the ground running!
