

Sentry and Motive relationship delivers smart technology and significant savings to trucking businesses like yours

This partnership offers insurance premium discounts and connects you to robust telematics systems to help improve your operations.

Motive, a leader in automated operations, and Sentry, a leading insurer in the trucking industry, have teamed up to provide our shared customers with added features and benefits—including premium discounts and more efficient claims processes.

SENTRY'S TELEMATICS INCENTIVE

With this partnership, you can use industry-leading telematics data from Motive—including live GPS tracking, real-time maintenance monitoring, and up-to-date compliance records—while potentially saving on your insurance premiums by sharing driving event and collision data.

If eligible, you could receive:

- Up to 3 percent off your insurance premium for sharing ELD data only
- Up to 5 percent off your insurance premium for sharing ELD and dashcam data

WITH MOTIVE, YOU CAN:

- Work smarter: Automate your compliance management with AI-powered unidentified trip and driver matching, real-time alerts, automatic annotations, and more
- Invest in safety: Help reduce accidents and protect your drivers with the leader in AI-powered accident prevention
- Stay informed: Gain real-time visibility into the location, use, and health of your vehicles, equipment, and other physical assets
