Dear Members,

What a year it's been! As you explore this year in review, you will see that we've been busy here at the Crocker. There is much to celebrate as we look back on the last fiscal year (July 1, 2022 – June 30, 2023), but what I find most inspiring and worth highlighting are the people who dedicated their time, talents, and philanthropic support to make it all possible.

With dozens of new exhibitions, hundreds of public programs, and thousands of visitors streaming through our doors, it truly takes an army of dedicated staff, volunteers, docents, members, and donors to reach these numbers we're so proud of.

It took months to plan and reinstall the stunning ceramics wing. Weeks were spent building custom displays for the Lee Alexander McQueen and Ann Ray: Rendez-Vous fashion exhibition. Countless hours were invested researching and preparing new tours and programs for visitors and members to enjoy. Major projects required an all hands on deck approach, including the return of Crocker Ball after a two-year hiatus and the relaunch of the Art Ark into the community and schools so students could experience the life-changing power of art.

They say many hands make light work, and I am so grateful for the many hands who chose to support and uplift the Crocker this year. To you, I say thank you. Your generosity made it possible for the Museum to bring people together and connect them in unexpected ways with art, ideas, each other, and the world around them.

With gratitude,

CHELSEA LARSON
Director of Institutional Advancement

Education

The Museum is never more alive than when activated with public programs and educational experiences. Over the last 12 months, we welcomed the return of beloved staples and the enhancement of new offerings. Art Ark relaunched with a series of community days before returning to its regular rotation in regional schools. Talks + Conversations featuring renowned journalists and artists brought perspective to exhibitions and new acquisitions. The Museum was honored to meet the needs of the community with consistently sold-out Art + Wellness programs supported by the Institute of Museum and Library Services. ArtMix found its groove with several record-setting events that put the art in party. This year proved once again that the Crocker is a gathering place for our community.

Curatorial

Sharing the Museum's collection and providing opportunities for our visitors to experience new forms of art is key to the Crocker's mission. This year, we were thrilled to present many gallery rotations, including a comprehensive rehang of our ceramics wing—a true retelling of the history of this vibrant medium. Multiple changing exhibitions offered exposure to everything from haute couture to contemporary prints. Four Crocker-curated exhibitions with accompanying catalogues traveled the country, sharing our scholarship with audiences near and far.
