Jurisdiction rules are strictly followed by the Embassy/Consulate of Türkiye. Your work and residence address together determine your jurisdiction.

For example, if an applicant works and resides in Mumbai, they may complete their application at any application centre within the Mumbai jurisdiction.

If your work address falls under one jurisdiction but your residence address falls under another, you must submit your application based on your work jurisdiction, while also providing residence documents relevant to that same jurisdiction.

If you are living on rent, you must submit the rent agreement for the last six months. If you have been living at the current address for less than six months, you must provide tenant verification as per the current rent agreement. Alternatively, you may submit valid government address proofs such as Aadhaar Card, Voter ID, Gas Bill, Electricity Bill, etc.
