HILLS

we die on

WE ARE COMMITTED TO:
authenticity

We believe we can't be what God has called us to be if we play games with each other. Whether it's what happens on stage, within our smaller communities, serving teams or in our homes, we need to be able to share our faults and weaknesses and not fake it. That's authenticity, just being real.

Philippians 3:17

The Seven Hills We Die On are applications of biblical truth expressed through the unique personality of Crossroads. Check out the Info Center for the rest of 'em.

FYI

Hopefully you've already received a (free) Free guide, or downloaded a (free) PDF copy at crossroads.net/free. But if you'd like another hard copy or want to send one to your cousin in Omaha, you can order it online at josephbeth.com, amazon.com or bn.com (just search "Free Guide Brian Tome"). And no, if you order it online, the guide isn't THAT kind of free.

This is the place to ask the tough questions, be yourself, react to what God says in the Bible and see things most people never show you. Connect with other teens with similar interests, in groups that are just the right size. Then experiment. There are no planned outcomes or exercises that adults are trying make you do. Come and see what happens.

current message series

We might not be as free as we think we are. Even worse, we may have been duped into believing that a relationship with God is about layering on rules and restrictions.

The Bible says, "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom." Not fear. Not guilt. Not morality or religion.

You can experience the kind of joy you thought only kids could have. God's offering real freedom. Get yours.

today

We'll be talking about the importance of freeing others as a part of our own journey to freedom.

Hi.

Just because you're new we won't ask you to stand and shout your name, but that doesn't mean we're not happy you're here. We're happy as big fat clams. But as soon as you want to start meeting some people, swing by the Info Center and we'll start the introductions.
